A NOTE ON SCHEDULING

As you schedule classes, please make an effort to avoid the 3:30 - 5:30 conflicts. We can get so much more done at rehearsals when everyone is present. Conflicts will have to be approved through Prof. Jones in advance. We will avoid approving anything more than a two-hour conflict (three for upperclassmen with one-time conflicts). We realize the problems with the schedule and one-time class offerings, but do your best to avoid those conflicts that are avoidable. With a concerted effort and careful schedule planning, we can eliminate many of the conflicts that now exist.
