8:30-9:00	Opening remarks Stew 214: College of Liberal Arts Dean Irwin Weiser, Diane Brentari, Gaurav Mathur, Sharon Newman-Solow, Stephanie Adams, Ronnie Wilbur		ASL and English
9:00-10:00	PLENARY TALK Stew 214	Ceil Lucas	ASL
10-10:10	pause
10:10-11:40	Session A Stew 202
	Special session: Sign language acquisition I	Ritva Takkinen (organizer)	English
	Introduction	Ritva Takkinen	English
	Early spoken and sign language acquisition	Bencie Woll	English
	Bilingual development in deaf children using cochlear implants	Ritva Takkinen	English
11:40-11:50	pause
11:50-1:20	Special session: Sign language acquisition II
	Sign Language developmental Impairments	Kathryn Mason	English
	Discussant 1+2+3	Debbie Chen Pichler	ASL and English
		Diane Lillo-Martin	English
		Ronice de Quadros
	General discussion
10:10-11:40	Session B Stew 218
	Phonology 1
10:10	The handshape parameter in Kenyan Sign Language	Hope Morgan & Rachel Mayberry	English
10:40	Reading between the signs: How are transitions built in signed languages?	Kyle Duarte, Sylvie Gibet	ASL
11:10	Sociolinguistic variation in the 1 handshape in British Sign Language	Jordan Fenlon, Ramas Rentelis, Adam Schembri,	BSL
11:40-11:50	pause
11:50-1:20	Phonology 2
11:50	On the weight of sentence-final prosodic words	Els van der Kooij, Onno Crasborn, Johan Ros	English
12:20	The hands and mouth do not always slip together in British Sign Language	David Vinson, Robin Thompson, Robert Skinner, Neil Fox	English
12:50	On the role of transitions in signed language	Tommi Jantunen	English
1:20- 2:00	LUNCH
2:00-3:05	Poster session Stew 302/306: Psycholinguistics/Neurolinguistics & Language Acquisition (see separate page for poster list and board numbers)

TISLR 10: September 30, 2010 (afternoon)

Session A Stew 202

3:05-4:35	Special Session: Sociolinguistic Variation in Sign Language I Ceil Lucas (organizer)
	Introductory Remarks	Ceil Lucas	ASL
	Signed languages and usage-based grammars: Evidence from variation in Australian Sign Language	Adam Schembri, Trevor Johnston	BSL
	Linguistic issues in building a corpus for LIS (Italian Sign Language)	Carlo Geraci, Anna Cardinaletti, Carlo Cecchetto, Caterina Donati	English
4:35-4:45	pause
4:45-6:15	Special Session: Sociolinguistic Variation in Sign Language II
	Sign time-capsules: lexical variation and change in NZSL	David McKee, Rachel McKee	ASL
	Black ASL as a Separate Variety	Ceil Lucas, Carolyn McCaskill, Joseph Hill, Robert Bayley	ASL

Session B Stew 218

3:05-4:35	New Methodologies in Sign Language Research
3:05	Investigating signed language disorders: Case study methods and results	David Quinto-Pozos, Jenny Singleton	ASL
3:35	Defining an articulatory joint space for sign language handshapes	Petra Eccarius, Robert Scheidt	English
4:05	Toward an artificial sign language: Foundational experiments in the evolution of sign languages	Alex Del Giudice, Simon Kirby, Carol Padden	English
4:35-4:45	pause
4:45-6:15	Vision Research on Sign Languages
4:45	Seeing the world through a visual language: Visual world paradigm in British Sign Language	Robin Thompson, Neil Fox	ASL
5:15	Event structure: From perception to sign language production and back again	Evie Malaia, Ronnie Wilbur	English
5:45	Analysis of visual properties in American Sign Language	Rain Bosworth, Charles Wright, Karen Dobkins	ASL
6:30-8:00	Sign Language Linguistic Society Meeting Stew 214

TISLR 10: October 1, 2010 (morning)

9:00-10:00	PLENARY TALK Stew 214	Carol Padden	ASL
10-10:10	pause
10:10-11:40	Session A Stew 202
	Special session: Sign languages in village communities I Ulrike Zeshan (organizer)
	The linguistic ecology of 'village sign languages': methodological pitfalls and good practices	Angela Nonaka, Victoria Nyst, Shifra Kisch	English

	Alipur village, India: The sign language and the deaf community	Sibaji Panda	IS
	The survival of Algerian Jewish Sign Language in Israel	Sara Lanesman & Irit Meir	IS, English
11:40-11:50	pause
11:50-1:20	Special session: Sign languages in village communities II
	Subject and object in Kata Kolok	Connie de Vos	English
	Looking at the lexicon of Yolngu Sign Language (Northern Australia), Country Sign (Jamaica), and Kata Kolok (Bali, Indonesia)	Dany Adone, Anastasia Bauer, Keren Cumberbatch, Waldemar Schwager	English, IS
	The significance of village sign languages for the typological study of sign languages	Ulrike Zeshan	IS
10:10-11:40	Session B Stew 218
	Syntax I
10:10	Binding Theory in ASL (English)	Philippe Schlenker, Gaurav Mathur	English, ASL
10:40	A point well taken: The non-first person category in Sign Language of the Netherlands	Emar Maier, Kees de Schepper, Martine Zwets	English
11:10	Strategies for relativization in HKSL	Gladys Tang, Prudence Lau, Jafi Lee	English
11:40-11:50	pause
11:50-1:20	Syntax II
11:50	The psychological reality of ASL syntax: Evidence from syntactic priming	Matt Hall, Victor Ferreira	ASL
12:20	Input ambiguity and head directionality of TP in Hong Kong Sign Language	Scholastica Lam, Gladys Tang	English
12:50	Nonmanual aspects of focus particles in sign languages	Annika Herrmann	English
1:20 - 2:00	LUNCH
2:00- 3:05	Poster session: Crosslinguistic and Theoretical Analyses (see list on separate page)

TISLR 10: October 1, 2010 (afternoon)

Session A Stew 202

3:05-4:35	Morphology
3:05	A unique type of non-concatenative morphology in signed languages	Gaurav Mathur, Christian Rathmann	ASL
3:35	Re-analyzing plural classifier predicates in ASL	Nassira Nicola	ASL
4:05	Classifier handshape acquisition in ASL Revisited	Diane Brentari, Ashley Jung	English
4:35-4:45	pause
4:45-6:15	Special Session: Prosody, Morphology, and Syntax in the Emergence of Sign Language Marie Coppola (organizer)

Prosody as point of entry to linguistic analysis of a new language	Wendy Sandler	English
Evidence of resilient and less resilient properties in linguistic systems	Sandra Wood	ASL
Grammaticalization of points in Nicaraguan signing	Marie Coppola, Ann Senghas	ASL

Session B Stew 218

3:05-4:35

Psycholinguistics

3:05	Processing of spatial information in sign languages. Evidence from event-related brain potentials	Annika Herrmann, Matthias Schlesewsky, Markus Steinbach, Jana Hosemann	English
3:35	Investigating recognition of ASL and human actions: Evidence from repetition priming for signs and gestures	David Corina, Michael Grosvald	English
4:05	The phonological representation of the non-dominant hand	Jonathan Udoff, Karen Emmorey	English

4:35-4:45 pause

4:45-6:15 Semantics

4:45	When meaning permeates form: Effects of iconicity for phonological decisions in British Sign Language	Robin Thompson, Robert Skinner, David Vinson, Neil Fox, Gabriella Vigliocco	ASL
5:15	Plurality of relations in German Sign Language: Mapping semantics onto morphosyntax	Roland Pfau, Markus Steinbach	English
5:45	Serial verb constructions in Hong Kong Sign Language	Prudence Lau	English

7:30-9:00 Conference Reception, West Faculty Lounge, Purdue Memorial Union

TISLR 10: October 2, 2010 (morning)

9:00-10:00 PLENARY TALK Stew 214 Josep Quer English

10:00-10:10 pause

10:10-11:40 Session A Stew 202

Special session: Sign Phonetics

Introduction	Martha Tyrone (organizer)	English
Conditions on sign lowering	Martha Tyrone	English
Tutorial on task dynamics and articulatory phonology	Claude Mauk	English
Capturing invariance through kinematics	Elliot Saltzman	English
Summary	Hosung Nam	English
	Martha Tyrone	English

11:40-11:50 pause

11:50-1:20 Prosody

11:50	Does prosody make sign language syntax different?	Diane Lillo-Martin, Ronice de Quadros	ASL
-------	---	---------------------------------------	-----

12:20	Cross-modal prosodic effects of A-bar movement	Sarah Churng	English
12:50	Role shift and context shift	Philippe Schlenker	English
Session B Stew 218
10:10-11:40	Space in sign languages
10:10	Spatial categorization in a spatial language	Jennie Pyers, Karen Emmorey, Soonja Choi	ASL
10:40	The spatial association of nouns in Langue des Signes Québécoise: Form, function and meaning	Julie Rinfret	English
11:10	How uniform are locative expressions across sign languages?	Pamela Perniss, Inge Zwitterlood, Asli Ozyurek	English
11:40-11:50	pause
11:50-1:20	Acquisition
11:50	Effects of learning ASL on co-speech gesture	Shannon Casey, Karen Emmorey	ASL
12:20	The role of animacy in the acquisition of entity constructions in British Sign Language	Kearsy Cormier, Sandra Smith	BSL
12:50	British Sign Language grammaticality judgment task: Exploring age-of-acquisition effects	Adam Schembri, Eleni Orfanidou, Kearsy Cormier, David Vinson	BSL
1:20- 2:00	LUNCH
2:00- 3:05	Poster session: Corpus and Applied Linguistics (see separate page)

TISLR 10: October 2, 2010 (afternoon)

Session A Stew 202

3:05-4:35	Special Session: Bilingualism I	Jill Morford (organizer)
	Cross-language activation during visual word recognition in deaf bilingual children	Ellen Ormel, Daan Hermans	English
	Effects and non-effects of sign language knowledge on written word recognition: A comparison of ASL-English and DGS-German bilingual adults	Okan Kubus, Jill Morford, Christian Rathmann, Erin Wilkinson	ASL
	The development of code-blending in deaf and hearing Kudas	Beppie van den Bogaerde, Anne Baker	English
4:35-4:45	pause
4:45-6:15	Special Session: Bilingualism II
	The morphology of code-blending	Catarina Donati, Chiara Branchini	English
	Two languages but one computation: Code-blending in bimodal bilingual development	Ronice Müller de Quadros, Diane Lillo-Martin, Debbie Chen Pichler	ASL
	Simultaneous production of ASL and English costs the speaker but benefits the listener	Karen Emmorey, Jennifer Petrich, Tamar Gollan	ASL

Session B Stew 218

3:05-4:35

Discourse 1

3:05	ASL renditions of an English narrative: Accommodation through chaining and explaining/connecting-ASL	David Quinto-Pozos, Wanette Reynolds	ASL
3:35	The emergence of referential shift marking in Nicaraguan Sign Language	Jennie Pyers, Annemarie Kocab, Anne Senghas	ASL
4:05	Segmentation of discourse units in Russian Sign Language	Evgenia Prozorova	English
4:35-4:45	pause
4:45-6:15	Discourse 2
4:45	Levels of Structure in ASL Narratives: Variations between Native and Nonnative Signers	Marie Nadolske	ASL
5:15	Prosodic Structure in ASL Narratives: Native, CODA and L2 Signers	Diane Brentari, Marie Nadolske	ASL
5:45	Eyegaze in Creative Sign Language	Michiko Kaneko, Johanna Mesch	ASL/English
			ASL
6:30-7:30	PLENARY TALK	Marlon Kuntze
8:00-10:30	BANQUET & ENTERTAINMENT	"The Flying Words Project": Peter Cook and Kenny Lerner

Poster session schedule follows:

POSTER SESSION September 30, 2010 2-3 pm

Acquisition Posters [Boards 1-15]:

1	Palm orientation errors are characteristic of deaf children with autism	Aaron Shield, Richard Meier
2	A study of the school lexicon in American Sign Language	Jilly Kowalsky, Richard Meier
3	An investigation into the lexicalization of health vocabulary in Australian Sign Language (ASL)	Lindsay Ferrara
4	Age of acquisition of ASL and mental rotation in adults	Amber Martin
5	Prosody in the acquisition of Sign Language: Two case studies of a deaf child (LSF) and a bilingual	Marion Blondel, Fanny Limousin
6	Early language exposure affects the development of phonological representations in sign	Matt Hall, Rachel Mayberry, Victor Ferreira
7	The composition of early vocabulary in adolescent first language acquisition: When late looks early	Naja Ferjan, Amy Lieberman, Rachel Mayberry
8	The role of input in acquisition of verb agreement in Hong Kong Sign Language: A case study	Scholastica Lam
9	The variability of word order in the acquisition of Brazilian Sign Language	Aline Lemos Pizzio
10	Sign and speech in family interaction: Code choices of Deaf Parents and their hearing children	Ginger Pizer
11	Systematic phonological errors in the acquisition of ASL by native-signing Deaf children	Shannon Szameitat, Brenda Schick
12	Four eyes and four hands: How mothers scaffold literacy development through ASL	Amy Lieberman, Marla Hatrak
13	Cognitive and linguistic control in verbs of motion location: Acquiring plural & arrangement	Robert Hoffmeister, Sarah Fish, Marlon Kuntze, Catherine Caldwell-Harris
14	Learning verbal plurality in ASL: An experimental study	Lynn Hou
15	Emergence of depiction in acquisition of American Sign Language	Clifton Langdon

[Boards 16-27 intentionally left blank]

Psycholinguistics /Neurolinguistics Posters [Boards 28-40]

28	Motion semantics in American Sign Language activate motion-sensitive visual areas in the human brain	Stephen McCullough, Ayse Saygin, Morana Alac, Karen Emmorey
29	The impact of language modality on the linguistic encoding of perceptual categories	Brenda Nicodemus, Lucinda O'Grady Batch, Karen Emmorey
30	Phonological constraints on handshape mapping in ASL: Evidence from articulatory compensation	Jonathan Udoff, Karen Emmorey
31	Processing orthographic structure: Associations between print and fingerspelling	Karen Emmorey, Jennifer Petrich
32	Deafness, not sign language, enhances peripheral visual attention	Matthew Dye
33	Categorical perception of handling handshapes in British Sign Language	Zed Sevcikova
34	Long-distance coarticulation in ASL: A production and perception study	Michael Grosvald, David Corina
35	An fMRI study of implicit sign processing: Functional neuro-anatomy of lexical recognition in American Sign Language	Niki Spotswood, Elizabeth Hirshorn, Heather Patterson, Peter Hauser, Guinevere Eden, David Corina
36	The Depiction Comprehension Test in American Sign Language	Raylene Paludneviciene, Peter Hauser
37	Rates of fingerspelling in American Sign Language	David Quinto-Pozos
38	Handedness in corpus NGT	Anna Safar, Onno Crasborn, Ellen Ormel
39	Experimental research on scalar implicatures in a Sign Language	Kathryn Davidson
40	Investigating sign language variation through intelligibility testing: The recorded text test retell	Elizabeth Parks, Jason Parks

POSTER SESSION October 1, 2010 2-3 pm

Phonology [Boards 1-7]:

1	Gesture as a gradient factor: comparing sign language and spoken language	Gemma Barbera, Martine Zwets
2	Colors on hands: Phonological markedness of sign language color terms	Monica Schoonhoven, Roland Pfau, Bart de Boer
3	Are dynamic features required in signs?	Harry Van der Hulst, Rachel Channon
4	A constraint-based approach to compound formation in ASL	Alex Del Giudice
5	The Intersegmental Model of sign language phonology	Waldemar Schwager
6	New horizons in the Intersegmental approach to sign morphology	Waldemar Schwager
7	Mouthings in Sign Language of the Netherlands: Lexical variation	Richard Bank

Grammaticalization [Boards 8-9]:

8	From pidgin to creole in a sign language: The case of Israeli Sign Language	Irit Meir
9	Grammaticalisation processes in Flemish Sign Language	Mieke Van Herreweghe

Semantics [Boards 10-14]:

10	Reported speech as an evidentiality strategy in ASL	Barbara Shaffer
11	Signing about signing: Sign metalanguage in LSF and LSFb	Laurence Meurant, Brigitte Garcia
12	Default temporal interpretation in ASL	Tony Wright
13	Event visibility in Croatian Sign Language: separating Aspect and Aktionsart	Marina Milković, Evie Malaia
14	Referring expressions at the interfaces: A relational feature geometric analysis	Donovan Grose

Syntax/Structures [Boards 15-40]:

15	Investigating Sign Language in Trinidad and Tobago	Ben Braithwaite, Kathy-Ann Drayton, Leslie Ali, Azim Kallan, Ryan Ramgattan, Paulson Skerrit
16	Expressing plural meaning in Flemish Sign Language	Isabelle Heyerick, Mieke Van Braeckvelt, Danny De Weerd, Mieke Van Herreweghe, Myriam Vermeerbergen
17	Expressing existence in Flemish Sign Language and Finnish Sign Language	Danny De Weerd
18	Expression of quantity in the NP in Quebec Sign Language (LSQ)	Amélie Voghel
19	The correlation between mouth actions and word class in Irish Sign Language (ISL)	Susanne Militzer
20	Right dislocated pronominals in Hong Kong Sign Language	Felix Sze
21	Is there passive in Hong Kong Sign Language	Felix Sze
22	Person-neutral reference markers in PSL: A generative analysis	Paweł Rutkowski, Małgorzata Czajkowska-Kisil
23	The syntax of pronominal pointing signs in LIS	Carmela Bertone, Anna Cardinaletti
24	Reflexives in Russian Sign Language and Sign Language of the Netherlands: modality and universals	Vadim Kimmelman
25	Accessibility and Space in Sign Language discourse	Gemma Barbera
26	Joint attention and shifting spacial reference points in ASL	Terry Janzen, Barbara Shaffer
27	Agreement...or not...in ASL: Evidence from pro	Elena Koulidobrova
28	A theoretical look at the Person Agreement Marker in German Sign	Vera Lee-Schoenfeld, Charles Bradley

	Language
29	Long distance agreement: Spatial modulations in Inuit Sign Language verbs	Joke Schuit
30	The interplay of different head movements and their functions in Austrian Sign Language (ÖGS)	Andrea Lackner, Christian Stalzer
31	Evidence of telicity marking by nonmanuals in HZJ	Lea Dukić, Marina Milković Ronnie Wilbur
32	“IN” and “ON” in Turkish and Croatian Sign Languages (TID and HZJ): A parallel architecture view	Engin Arik, Marina Milkovic
33	Relative Clauses in Turkish Sign Language (TID)	Okan Kubus
34	What negative polar questions can teach us about the C domain for Turkish Sign Language	Kadir Gokgoz
35	Interrogative constructions in Danish Sign Language	Julie Hansen
36	Imperative in Norwegian Sign Language	Odd-Inge Schröder Slowikowska, Bogumila Schröder
37	Pseudocleft sentences and non-pseudocleft (rhetorical) question-answer pairs revised	Myriam Vermeerbergen
38	Multiple strategies for the questioning of the Wh-phrase in ASL	Sandra Wood
39	Adjectives in ASL	Jeffrey Merrill-Bernath
40	A case study on instrument classifiers in Tianjin Sign Language	Jia He

POSTER SESSION October 2, 2010 2-3 pm

Applied Linguistics Posters [Boards 1-22]:

1	Sign language and interpreter aptitude: a longitudinal study	Christopher Stone, Anneka Starling
2	Cross-linguistics terminology in Sign Languages: a comparison study between LSB and LGP	Sandra Patricia Nascimento, Ana Mineiro
3	The relationship between vocabulary knowledge in ASL and English	Sarah Fish, Robert Hoffmeister
4	Linguistic and biomechanical adaptations in interpreters: Analysis of expert and beginner sign language interpreters	Suzanne Villeneuve
5	An analysis of foot placement/movement and its functions in ASL lecture	Bryan Grubb, Peter Snelgrove
6	Metalinguistic skills and vocabulary knowledge in ASL antonyms and synonyms in Deaf children	Robert Hoffmeister, Rebecca Williams-McVey
7	Code-blending in Hong Kong Sign Language	Cat H.-M. Fung
8	Deaf-friendly research? Examining ethical research conduct through focus group methodology	Jenny Singleton, Gabrielle Jones, Shilpa Hanumantha
9	A lexical comparison of sign languages in East Asia	Daisuke Sasaki
10	A cognitive approach to understanding linguistic politeness in American Sign Language	Daniel Roush
11	ASL sign lowering as target undershoot: A corpus study	Terry Janzen, Kevin Russell, Erin Wilkinson
12	Documenting sign language competencies: Development of a cross-linguistic assessment tool	Peter Hauser
13	Sign Language as a Bridge to Literacy :A Bilingual- Bicultural study	Ety Moiseyev, Wendy Sandler
14	Online discussion forums within learning intervention environments: the case of the Letras Libras Co	Elizabeth Teixeira, Claudia Soares
15	Conversational alternance and backchannel feedback in tactile French Sign Language	Sandrine Schwartz
16	Person reference during sign language interpreted conversations	Maria Cristina Pires Pereira
17	Bimodal language processing in profoundly deaf children with a cochlear implant	Marcel Giezen, Anne Baker, Paola Escudero
18	Anthropomorphism in British Sign Language Literature	Rachel Sutton-Spence, Donna West

19	Making up for the disappearance of NMM in tactile sign languages	Carlo Cecchetto, Alessandra Checchetto, Carlo Geraci, Maria Teresa Guasti
