

The following legislation became effective on August 01, 2002. NCAA

BYLAW 12.4.2.1 Fee-for-Lesson Instruction

A student-athlete may receive compensation for teaching or coaching sport skills or techniques in his or her sport on a fee-for-lesson basis, provided: (Revised: 1/9/96 effective 8/1/96, 4/25/02 effective 8/1/02)

- (a) Institutional facilities are not used; (Adopted: 4/25/02 effective 8/1/02)
- (b) Playing lessons shall not be permitted; (Adopted: 4/25/02 effective 8/1/02)
- (c) The institution obtains and keeps on file documentation of the recipient of the lesson(s) and the fee for the lesson(s) provided during any time of the year; and (Adopted: 4/25/02 effective 8/1/02)
- (d) The compensation is paid by the lesson recipient (or the recipient's family) and not another individual or entity. (Adopted: 4/25/02 effective 8/1/02)

Based on NCAA interpretations, student-athletes cannot advertise the availability of fee-for-lesson sessions. If a coach makes referrals to the student-athletes, the amount of money earned during such sessions becomes countable athletics aid that will count towards team and individual limits. So, coaches should not be making the referrals, unless they want to count the aid against their team limits.
