Welcome to the Textbook Exchange Program!

Your Student Government at Purdue University Calumet wants to provide you with the very best of services to improve your experience at the University. Acknowledging the ever-increasing costs of textbooks, the occasional challenges in finding textbooks for required courses, and the occasional unavailability of textbooks at the beginning of semesters, Student Government has launched the Textbook Exchange Program. This program matches prospective buyers and sellers of textbooks in an easy-to-access online marketplace, allowing students to rent or sell textbooks at reasonable prices as compared with established vendors.

To provide rewarding experiences for all users in the Textbook Exchange Program, participants must agree to the following policies. Listing one or more textbooks in this spreadsheet or communicating with a prospective seller signifies your understanding and acceptance of these policies. Student Government may update these policies as necessary and respond to situations not addressed by the following policies.

1. This document shall be used exclusively to list textbooks that were used in student coursework at Purdue University Calumet. Books used at other universities or for personal purposes as well as other belongings may not be listed on this spreadsheet and, if posted, shall be promptly removed. Do not share this document with any individual who has no relationship with Purdue University Calumet.
2. All fields are required except for those fields that are marked "optional," in which cases no details are necessary. Entries that lack required information may be deleted at the discretion of Student Government. The following descriptors must be used to evaluate textbooks' conditions:
   - New
   - Like New
   - Good
   - Fair
   - Poor
3. Do not modify or delete entries created by other students. You may update your own entry(s) as often as necessary and create as many as you wish.
4. Participants must carry out their exchanges at one of the following campus locations:
   - Student Government Office (SUL 104F)
   - Student Activities Office (SUL 2193)
   - Office of Student Academic Support (GYTE 102)
   - International Programs Office (CLO 178)
   - Griffin Hall reception desk
5. Arranging to meet off-campus is strongly discouraged.
6. Participants must notify Student Government when an exchange is to take place. If an exchange is not conducted within three business days of notification, Student Government will not guarantee the text as a rental or sale. Furthermore, Student Government accepts no responsibility for the actions of anyone who participates in this program.
7. Students must delete their textbook listings from this spreadsheet following a successful exchange. Student Government will occasionally review the ongoing availability of textbooks to ensure that required textbooks are available for sale.
