RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION FOR KELSEY E. QUIN

WHEREAS, Kelsey E. Quin was appointed to the Purdue University Board of Trustees by Indiana Governor Mike Pence on July 1, 2013, and has served a two-year term as the student trustee; and

WHEREAS, Kelsey has enthusiastically served as the voice of the Purdue University student body as a voting member of the Board’s Academic Affairs Committee and Physical Facilities Committee; and

WHEREAS, Kelsey is a senior at Purdue and will earn her Bachelor of Science in Health Sciences with a pre-medicine concentration from the College of Health and Human Sciences, plus minors in Organizational Leadership and Supervision, Biology and Psychology, on May 17, 2015; and

WHEREAS, she has received scholastic honors for all seven semesters she has currently completed at Purdue, including, most recently, being named a College of Health and Human Sciences 2015 Outstanding Senior; and

WHEREAS, Kelsey is an active member of the Purdue campus community, participating in campus organizations such as the College of Health and Human Sciences Student Ambassador team, the College of Health and Human Sciences Success Mentors Program, the Division of Recreational Sports Advisory Board, the Women in Engineering Leadership Panel, the Leadership Engagement Experience Advisory Board, the Barbara Cook Chapter of the Mortar Board National Honor Society, and the Purdue Student Government, for which she served as the associate director of governmental relations; and

WHEREAS, appreciating the value of a Purdue education, Kelsey has assumed responsibility for paying her Purdue tuition by holding part-time employment throughout her college career, including her current employment at Franciscan St. Elizabeth Health in its hospitals’ emergency rooms; and

WHEREAS, in her limited free time, Kelsey can often be found volunteering, having taken part in a medical mission trip to Honduras with the Purdue Caduceus Club in 2012 and helping regularly at the Lafayette Food Finders Food Bank, work that earned her the Purdue University School of Health Sciences Service Award; and

WHEREAS, she received the Gold Work Ethic Certification from Indiana Governor Mitch Daniels in 2010 and was named the Distinguished Young Woman of Indiana in 2011; and
WHEREAS, Kelsey participated on the Board as an equal contributor, holding herself to the same high standards as her fellow Board members by coming to meetings prepared, ensuring she was familiar with all sides of the student and faculty perspectives, and sharing her ideas articulately; and

WHEREAS, Kelsey is a talented listener, showing great maturity in her ability to consider the viewpoints of others and earning great respect from her fellow trustees; and

WHEREAS, Kelsey was a regular visitor to the Office of the Board of Trustees and will be truly missed by Janice Indrutz, executive assistant to the Board and corporate secretary, and Kimberlie Weldy, administrative assistant, who have great adoration for Kelsey and who were the grateful recipients of not only Kelsey’s generous candy and cookie deliveries, but also her pre-invitation to the great feast she will hold when she is “big and fancy”; and

WHEREAS, she has shown tremendous sensibility and grace as the student trustee;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED BY THE TRUSTEES OF PURDUE UNIVERSITY:

1. That enormous gratitude and appreciation are expressed to Kelsey E. Quin for the high standards, talent, and professionalism she brought to her exemplary service as a Purdue University student trustee; and

2. That Kelsey Quin has been a tremendous steward of the principles of Purdue University and an outstanding Boilermaker ambassador; and

3. That Kelsey Quin’s many contributions in her role as a student trustee have impacted the success of Purdue University’s campuses, are part of the great, permanent history of Purdue University, and will never be forgotten; and

4. That this resolution be spread upon the minutes of the Board of Trustees as part of the permanent record of Purdue University for all to witness.
