STEWART CENTER
Built as a dedicated meeting facility, Stewart Center can accommodate groups of 10 to 500 in its 23 meeting rooms. These versatile rooms range from 900 to 2,900 square feet. A conveniently located registration area makes welcoming your conferees easy and efficient.

The facility is also the home of two auditoriums. Fowler Hall is a 400-seat, theater with superb acoustics, flexible lighting, and the latest in technological equipment. Loeb Playhouse is a 1,000-seat theater with the same amenities as Fowler Hall, and is perfect for large group presentations, ceremonies, or performances.

JOHN PURDUE ROOM, MARRIOTT HALL
Exquisite in its design and use, this laboratory trains our second-year students in food preparation and service as well as the fourth-year students in front and back of the house management.

All aspects of the dining experience are carried out by the students in the John Purdue Room. At noon, the students rotate through various positions commonly found in food service operations. They learn and develop food production and service skills. By the end of the semester, they have been exposed to quantity cooking methods, the use and care of equipment, and service techniques.

BURTON D. MORGAN CENTER FOR ENTREPRENEURSHIP
The Burton D. Morgan Center for Entrepreneurship is Purdue University’s premier interdisciplinary hub for entrepreneurship. Through its sponsored initiatives including the Certificate in Entrepreneurship and Innovation, Technology Realization Program, Entrepreneurial Leadership Academy, and Business Plan Competitions, the Center aims to stimulate entrepreneurship in the Purdue community and serve as a resource for the citizens of Indiana and beyond. Located in Purdue’s Discovery Park, the Burton D. Morgan Center for Entrepreneurship plays a key role in facilitating business development for emerging concepts and technologies stemming from Discovery Park research.
