John Copland – Indiana State Excise Police

John talked about a new power drink on the market called Cocaine and is 350 times stronger than Red Bull. He discussed the different responsibilities the Excise Police perform in our community and around the state. John provided the attendees with an overview of the kinds of fake IDs that are surfacing right now. He also mentioned that their arrest numbers are down so far this year, and he answered questions about gambling in the community.

Tim Potts – Purdue Police

Tim talked about the decrease in violations this year on home football weekends, and also mentioned that the numbers of people who tailgate (instead of attend the football games) has increased.

Tom Reiter – Purdue Athletics

Tom provided an overview of compliance policies as they relate to student athletes. He said that there can be no added benefits for student athletes. (For example, they are not allowed to get into the bars for free.)

Senator Ron Alting – Alcohol Interim Study Committee

Senator Alting sits on the Alcohol Interim Study Committee. He provided an overview of the issues that were presented at their September meeting.

- Selling of alcohol in supermarkets and the definition of a grocery store
- Tobacco selling violations
- ABC (Alcohol Beverage Commission) Boards
- Mandatory Carding system
- Server Training bill (looking into including grocery stores)
- Social Host Law

Tammy Loew – Student Wellness Office

Tammy discussed the grant Purdue received from the Department of Education. She also reminded attendees about the Legislative Forum on Monday, October 9th at the Tippecanoe County Office Building at 4:00, and asked attendees to fill out a survey indicating their interests and priorities for the Coalition.
