Campus Community Bar Retail Coalition
April 11, 2013

Attendees

Dan Adams, Where Else?
Taylor Adams, WLFI
Jeffrey Barbee, Neon Cactus
Paul Bobick, Bar Barry Liquors
Eric Brady, Neon Cactus
Miriam Brown, Student Wellness Office
Peter Bunder, West Lafayette City Council
Eric Chin, Purdue Police
Jim Cochran, Neon Cactus
Sheila Cochran, Neon Cactus
Mary Cook, Harry’s Chocolate Shoppe
Ashley Darnell, University Residences
Jason Dombkowski, West Lafayette Police Department
Jeff Fader, Bar Barry
Charles Fry, Jake’s Roadhouse
Tim Heath, West Lafayette Fire Department
Ann Hunt, West Lafayette City Council
Kate Kerrigan, Drug-Free Coalition of Tippecanoe County
Jessica Knerr, Office of the Dean of Students
Corey Linkel, Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities
Chris Leroux, West Lafayette Police Department
Tammy Loew, Student Wellness Office
J Long, WLFI
Trish Martin, Student SAPCAP Coordinator
Jolene Prather, Jake’s Roadhouse
Ben Reiling, Bar Barry Liquors
Kevin Scanlon, Where Else?
Bev Shaw, City of West Lafayette
Tony Schutter, West Lafayette Fire Department
Chris Sigurdson, Purdue External Relations
Lisa Smith, Court Services
Gary Sparger, West Lafayette Police
Jeff Stefancic, Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities
Sanford Swanson, Indiana State Excise Police
Diedra Tate, Student Activities and Organizations
Adam Toering, Jake’s
Nancy Vestal, Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities
Sophia Voravong, Journal and Courier

Meeting Notes

Jason Dombkowski, West Lafayette Police:

- Police are preparing for Grand Prix and Spring Fest.
- Barricades will be up Thursday-Sunday.
- There will be an increased police presence in the Levee during Breakfast Club.
- Police are encouraging establishments to staff their lines appropriately. They will closely monitor.
- Expect to see one sobriety checkpoint and increased saturation patrols.
- He reminded attendees about the responsibility of intoxicated and over-served patrons.
- Paper licenses are concerning and bars don’t have to accept them.
- The police have seen a 17% decrease in alcohol arrests in the city.

Eric Chin, Purdue Police:

- They are meeting with off-campus groups and with the fraternities and sororities to discuss harm-reduction strategies – emphasizing the purpose of the PurdueCares and Lifeline laws
- People visiting for Grand Prix weekend can expect sobriety patrols, foot patrols, and extra police presence at on-campus events.

Sanford Swanson, Indiana State Excise Police:

- They will have a presence at Grand Prix through saturation patrols and extended an offer for guidance and assistance to other departments.
- They have received complaints about over-service. He reminded attendees that establishments can be culpable for over-service to intoxicated patrons.
- Regarding paper licenses – retailers are encouraged not to accept them. They are meant to be temporary and are not secure sources of identification.
- He encouraged staff to increase door staff to identify those who have been pre-gaming or drinking at other establishments.

Visit our website at www.purdue.edu/ccbrc
Diedra Tate, Student Activities and Organizations:

- They received 15,000 to fund the 30-plus substance-free events during Grand Prix week.

Grand Prix Preparations:

- Neon Cactus will have two 40-passenger shuttles during Breakfast Club and are working on a Thursday Late-Night Rider.
- Community Corrections will be cleaning up on Sunday morning.
- Harry’s Chocolate Shoppe appreciates the wider sidewalks with the barriers, which assists with line control. Their side door will be open but monitored by staff.
- Jake’s is increasing staff and are hosting several “social” events that aren’t alcohol-related, such as a euchre tournament, Red Bull kart races, a pie-eating contest, and trivia night.
- Where Else is increasing staff to prepare for a big weekend.