

Emily Carter

Emily Carter is the DLRC's Media Specialist, assisting in the use of video cameras, wireless audio, nonlinear editing, and general presentation/conferencing technologies. Previously Emily worked as a video engineer at Elliott Hall of Music, where she assisted in live-event production. She has also been employed for many years in the entertainment industry working for touring musicians as a camera operator, video engineer, video director, and b-roll editor. Emily earned a B.S. degree in Computer Graphics Animation from Purdue's College of Technology in 2003.