Friday, September 23, 2011

3-6:30 p.m. Bone Marrow Registry, Lafayette Theater, Lafayette

6:30-9:30 p.m. Jazz Sampler, Lafayette Theater, Lafayette
Dedication to Michael Breaker 15-time Grammy winner, one of the greatest tenor saxophonists and featured in the documentary “More to Live

Saturday, October 22, 2011

8 a.m.-noon Bone Marrow Registry at downtown Lafayette Farmer’s Market

Wednesday, November 2, 2011

7:30 p.m. “More to Live For” showing by PSUB, Fowler Hall

8-9 p.m. John Wooden Pyramid of Success Series
Seun Adebiyi, 2014 Winter Olympic Athlete in Skelton from Nigeria
Noah Hutton, Documentary Filmmaker
The focus of the presentations: An eagerness to sacrifice personal interest of glory for the welfare of all.

Thursday, November 3, 2011

9-4:00 p.m. Bone Marrow Registry with Athletics and the School of Nursing

3:30 p.m. Exhibition of art work done in response to the issues raised by Hutton's "More to Live for."

7:30 p.m. “More to Live For” presentation with Noah Hutton, Filmmaker and Seun Adebiyi, Olympic Athlete

9 p.m. Reception

Friday, November 4, 2011

10:30 a.m. Workshop with Noah Hutton and Film Making Students, Fowler Hall
~ Go through his experience of making his first documentary
~ How the idea came to him
~ if he had a crew, and if so how he selected them and compensated for their work
~ How he funded the project and the process of submitting it to a festival (Alex suggested that this would be supported by footage from his film)