The Global Challenges Roundtable Series

EXAMINING THE ETHICAL, LEGAL, AND SOCIAL IMPLICATIONS OF A DRIVERLESS FUTURE

Agenda

January 25, 2018 | U.S. Capitol Visitor Center, SVC 209-08 | Washington, DC

1:30 PM  Welcome and Introductions
Scott Campbell, President, The Howard Baker Forum
Dr. Tomás Díaz de la Rubia, Executive Director and Chief Scientist, Purdue University
Discovery Park

1:45 PM  What is the Current State of Connected and Autonomous Transportation Vehicles?
Moderated by: Dr. Tomás Díaz de la Rubia
Andy Dubner, Business Leader, 3M Connected Roads Program (Confirmed)
Jessica Nigro, Manager, Outreach and Innovation Policy, Daimler (Confirmed)

2:30 PM  The Ethical and Social Issues Facing CATV (Topics will include big data ethics, human-computer interaction, economic impact, workforce issues, and consumer issues)
Moderated by: Laurel Weldon, Director of the Purdue Policy Research Institute at Purdue University
Jonathan Weinberger, VP of Innovation and Technology, Auto Alliance (Confirmed)
Noah Goodall, Research Scientist, Virginia Transportation Research Council, a partnership between the Virginia Department of Transportation and the University of Virginia (Confirmed)
Vinn White, Future of Mobility Specialist Leader, Deloitte (Confirmed)
Amitai Bin-Nun, Vice President, Autonomous Vehicles and Mobility Innovation, SAFE (Confirmed)

3:45 PM  Coffee Break
(To be provided in the room)

4:00 PM  The Legal and Regulatory/Legislative Issues Facing CATV (Topics will include conflicts with existing regulations, consumer acceptance, security, and data privacy)
Moderated by: Bruce Doeg, Chief Strategic Officer, Baker Donelson
Bryant Walker Smith, Assistant Professor of Law, University of South Carolina School of Law (member of the US Department of Transportation’s Advisory Committee on Automation in Transportation) (Confirmed)
Karlyn Stanley, Adjunct Senior Researcher, Rand Corporation (Confirmed)
Cherilyn Pascoe, Advisor to Chairman, Sen. Thune, United States Senate Committee on Commerce, Science and Transportation (Confirmed)

5:00 PM  Closing Remarks