

Melissa Seward Yale

Melissa is a Graduate Research Assistant at the Discovery Learning Center. Her main role involves the evaluation and assessment of various programs partnered with the DLC. She is also pursuing her PhD in Research Methodology and Applied Psychometrics through the College of Education. She received a BA in Sociology and in Christian Education from Cedarville University.