Join us in Celebrating MLK Day

Monday, January 15
4:00-6:00 pm
West Lafayette Public Library

All ages welcome!
Families, teens, and adults are invited.

Hear storyteller Jolivette Anderson, "Poet Warrior," share her skillful telling of stories and songs from the Civil Rights Movement.

Experience a big-screen viewing of Dr. King's "I Have a Dream" speech followed by an all-ages community conversation.

Decorate the library's Dream Tree with your own dreams for the future.

Light refreshments will be served.
