DiversiKey Winter Break Reading List

DiversiKey, Winter Break 2016-17

As part of Purdue’s campus wide Martin Luther King Jr. celebration, DiversiKey students are encouraged to engage with the MLK’s thoughts on social justice. Below are links to a selection of speeches, articles and multimedia presentations of some of Dr. King’s most famous work. For each media piece engaged in and reflected on DiversiKey students will earn 1 Personal Growth Point. Students will also have the opportunity to earn 1 Interpersonal Development Point in Spring 2017 by participating in DiversiKey Winter Recap event on Jan 12, 2017 (see DiversiKey events website), where students will discuss and reflect upon the sources on this list. Reflections should be emailed to Joe Morrison (morri219@purdue.edu). If a student has a reading suggestion related to MLK, please email Joe Morrison for feedback on the suggestion prior to completing a reflection.

Resources:

“Give Us the Ballot”. Youtube, uploaded by nicholasflyer, 24 September 2015, https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3AKVzLB7uGc

Freedom’s Ring: King’s ‘I Have a Dream’ Speech. Stanford University.

King, Martin L. “If the Negro Wins, Labor Wins.” Stanford University, The Martin Luther King, Jr. Papers

For additional opportunities to earn DiversiKey points, consider the following activities:

1. Submit an essay into the College of Liberal Arts Martin Luther King Jr. Essay Contest https://www.cla.purdue.edu/diversity/Martin%20Luther%20King%20Jr.%20Essay%20Contest/index.html (Personal Development 2 points)

2. Attend and Participate in the DiversiKey Winter Recap Event on Thursday, January 12, 2017 in MSEE room 239, from 6pm-7pm (1 Interpersonal Development Point)

3. Volunteer for the Martin Luther King Day of Service http://www.purdue.edu/diversity-inclusion/mlk/day-of-service.html (Community Engagement 2 points)

4. Attend Harry Belafonte’s Lecture on Martin Luther King Jr’s historical and contemporary legacies http://www.purdue.edu/diversity-inclusion/mlk/ (Personal Development 1 Point)
   a. Consider the following

6. Attend the Screening of “Black Purdue” and the panel discussion moderated by Dr. Venetria Patton on Jan 17, 2017 in Pflendler Hall room 241, from 12pm-1:30pm. (Personal Development 1 point)

7. Attend the lecture “Looking at the Civil Rights Movement vs. Black Lives Matter” by Dr. Kai Green on Jan 18, 2017 in Pflender Hall room 241, from 12pm—1:30pm. (Personal Development 1 point)

8. Attend the “Songs of Freedom—Negro Spirituals and Their Meaning” on Jan 20, 2017 in Pflender Hall room 241, from 12pm—1:30pm. (Personal Development 1 point)