

Purdue's Underground Tunnel System

Solid lines represent the route of the tunnel system. All the buildings shown are connected by the tunnel system. The tunnels are generally one level below the first floor of each building. The streets that run above the tunnels (plus the directions in which they run) are labeled in Italic. As a further check against this map, there are signs throughout the tunnel system to direct you to the various buildings.

