“Who are all those People with sticks?”

BOILER GOLD RUSH

Kasi Jones and Corey Thoss
Student Access, Transition and Success Programs

March 1, 2012
Who are we?
Did you know of Boiler Gold Rush (BGR)

1. Academic expectations
2. Identifying and locating campus resources
3. Co-curricular opportunities
4. Diversity awareness
5. Develop a sense of community
Academic expectations

Event’s include
• Academic picnic
• Group presentation with faculty member and current student
• National speaker to address academic success
• Small group discussions
• Library presentation
• Common reading discussions
Identifying and locating campus resources

Event’s include
• Campus tours
• BGR bags full of helpful information
• Resource fair
• Activity and Business fair
• Large Group Presentations
  • Safety
  • Libraries
  • Cultural Centers
  • Womens Resource Office
  • Student organizations
Co-curricular opportunities

Event’s include

• Interest sessions
• Business and Activities fair
• Late Night at the Recreational Sports Center (intramurals and sport clubs)
• Unionfest (Purdue Student Union Board)
Awareness

Event’s include
• FreeZone
• Small group discussions
• Cultural Centers
Develop a sense of community

Event’s include
• Athletics
• Boilermaker special rides
• Late night store runs
• Activity and Business fair (community)
• Building social networks
• Making connections with residence hall (RA)
• Providing a safe and substance free environment
Inside BGR

- Two professional staff
- Eight Student Orientation Committee members (SOC)
- 78 Team Supervisors
- 430 Team Leaders

- One of the largest programs in the country
- Benchmarked often and nationally recognized
- We invite you to BGR 2012--- August 12-17th