Purdue Federal Credit Union Citizenship Award in Honor of Ronda E. Feathers

The Purdue Federal Credit Union (PFCU) Citizenship Award in Honor of Ronda E. Feathers is a one-time, $1,000 non-renewable award for a current first-year student in Exploratory Studies (ES). This award recognizes the outstanding school/community involvement and strong academic achievement of a continuing ES student, with preference going to a member of the Purdue “All-American” Marching Band who also has a cumulative Purdue GPA of 3.0 or greater. The Award is disbursed in equal installments during the fall and spring semesters of the student’s sophomore year. Applications are reviewed by the committee, with selection by April 1.

Please print clearly or type

Name: ________________________________

First Middle Last

Campus Address: ____________________________________________________________

City: __________________________ State: __________ Zip Code: ________________

Local Telephone: ( ) ______________ Purdue ID number: 00 _______ - _______ ______

E-mail Address: ____________________ Purdue Cumulative GPA: __________

Home/Permanent Address: ______________________________________________________

City: __________________________ State: __________ Zip Code: ________________

Name of Person Making Recommendation re: your community service, etc.: _______________________

High School/College Honors courses taken: ____________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

High School/College Honors Received: ______________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

Employment: _________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________
High School/College/Community service & other activities (indicate leadership roles & # of years of service):

_____________________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________________

Essay: On a separate sheet of paper, please answer both of the following questions in one cohesive essay. (Please type your statement, and limit it to 250 words or less.)

1) Define “good citizen” and outline your thoughts on the value and benefits of being a good citizen in your community.

2) Describe a specific service project/organization you’ve been involved with, and what you’ve learned from being involved with that project/organization.

Please enclose:

a) Letter of Recommendation from Person familiar with your community service & volunteer experiences
b) Essay

Please read & sign below:

I hereby give permission to Exploratory Studies/Purdue University to release pertinent information concerning me to the news media and PFCU if I am awarded the Purdue Federal Credit Union Citizenship Award in Honor of Ronda E. Feathers. I also agree to submit a thank you letter to ES for delivery to the scholarship donors if I am selected to receive the Award.

Signature of Applicant

Date

Send completed application to:

PFCU Feathers Award
Exploratory Studies
Young Hall, 8th floor
155 S. Grant Street
West Lafayette, IN 47907-2108

Deadline for submission:

Application (and all supporting documents) must be postmarked or delivered to ES offices by March 14, 2014
Please do not fax application or supporting material.

Selection by April 1, 2014