GUESTS: Valerie O'Brien (Marketing & Media)

1. The meeting was called to order at 2:30 p.m. by Chairperson Alberto J. Rodriguez.
2. The minutes of the 16 October 2017 Senate meeting were approved as distributed.
3. The Agenda was accepted as distributed.
4. Professor Rodriguez presented the remarks of the Chairperson (see Appendix A).
5. President Daniels presented the remarks of the President (see Appendix B).
6. Question Time- Written questions had been received from Professor Stephen Martin. In addition, questions were entertained from the floor.
 - Statement and Question 1 from Professor Martin: “Krannert has made a huge effort to develop online courses and programs. The Department of Economics will have 17 distance-learning courses this summer, with a projected enrollment of nearly 1000 students. What are the implications of the Kaplan acquisition for distance-learning teaching based on the West Lafayette campus?” President Daniels said that there would be no implications, at least for a couple of years. Certainly, we hope to capitalize on Kaplan’s head start in this area.
 - Statement and Question 2 from Professor Martin: “An issue with diversity hiring is that a minority candidate is often just that – a minority, with few if any departmental colleagues to identify with. Purdue has a program to hire 100 new faculty in STEM disciplines. Would Purdue consider a kind of “cluster hire” of 25 diversity faculty members, who could form a cohort across disciplines and turn to each other for mutual support as they navigate the teaching, research, promotion and tenure rapids?” President Daniels said that some of the 100 might be diversity candidates. Further, why wait: let existing faculty mentor new hires. In any case, probably “cluster hire” is not the right term, since that involves common academic interests. President Daniels stated that with Provost Akridge spearheading it, we have a lot going on in this area. The goals are to achieve higher levels of URM retention and get a more diverse faculty.

- Professor Natalya Kaganovich asked about the tax bill that has passed the U.S. House of Representatives, and its provisions proposing to tax graduate student tuition waivers. The President first allowed that this is an all-hands-on-deck situation. He noted that the other Land Grant institutions are also onboard in opposition to this provision of the bill. He estimated that half of our own graduate students would be affected. He encouraged everyone by saying they should not panic. The provisions are in the House bill, not in the Senate bill.
- Professor Pamela Aaltonen asked if the student who leave Purdue University with debt have had lower debt than in the past. President Daniels said that their debt load down. He offered to send those data to Professor Aaltonen.
- Professor Alberto Rodriguez noted that the Dean of the Libraries is retiring, but there is no search committee, yet. President Daniels stated that there are two committee exploring strategic issues regarding the Libraries:
 - One issue is the deployment of library faculty on campus: Can they teach? Should they teach?
 - The second issue is to consideration whether Purdue move to the kind of single library system that is in place at IU, or continue with our system of distributed libraries.

Once these matters are settled, we will write a job description and recruit a new Dean.

7. Professor S. Laurel Weldon, Chair of the Steering Committee, presented the Résumé of Items under Consideration (ROI) by various standing committees (see Appendix C). The Chairs of the Senate Standing Committees briefly described the current activities of their respective committees.
8. Professor Weldon presented Senate Document 17-06, Reapportionment of the Senate; for Action. A motion to approve was made no second required as it came from a committee. Professor Heather Servaty-Seib noted that Honors College is not represented on the Senate. Professor Steven Landry, Chair of the Faculty Affairs Committee (FAC) stated that the FAC members are looking into this and will provide a recommendation in the future. Following this discussion the motion was approved with 67 votes in favor, 0 in opposition with no abstentions.
9. Professor Steven Landry presented Senate Document 17-04, Discharging the Faculty Informetrics Committee, for Discussion. Professor Landry explained the rationale for the resolution. The committee is inactive and no longer needed. A motion was made and seconded to suspend the rules to allow a vote at the current meeting. The motion to suspend the rules passed with 58 votes in favor, 3 votes in opposition with 0 abstentions. A motion was made and seconded to approve Senate Document 17-04. No discussion occurred and the vote was taken. The motion to approve passed with 58 votes in favor, 0 votes in opposition with 3 abstentions. The Informetrics Committee was discharged with the passage of Senate Document 17-04.

10. Professor Natalie Carroll presented Senate Document 17-05, Senate Bylaws Change, for Discussion. The rationale for the proposed change is to enlarge the pool of candidates for the position of Vice-Chair of the Senate. Professors Bharat Bhargava and Christopher Clifton made remarks about the wording of the document. They will send their suggestions to Professor Carroll for consideration. Professor Alan Beck suggested this is a major change as currently one must be on the Senate to run for Vice-Chair. The proposed change will allow those who have served in the past to run again. Professor Ralph Kaufmann asked: "Even if they served 20 year ago?" Yes, they can be considered. Senator Samuel Eschker commented that a current Senator would have the suggested two-year constraint imposed, but this usually does not happen. Professor Ayhan Irfanoglu asked about how a non-Senator can become the Chair. Professor Carroll explained that they are Senators-at-Large and detailed how our current system works. They do not represent their Colleges as at-Large Senators. Professor Kaufmann expressed concern about the proposed change. Professor Alberto Rodriguez reminded the Senators to send suggestions for changing the wording to Professor Carroll. Professor Weldon stated that it is currently difficult to populate the Senate and related committees. This proposal opens up a group of people we can call on to do important tasks even though they are not currently on the Senate. This will create a broader pool of candidates, but does not guarantee that they are elected.
11. Professor Alan Friedman, Chair of the University Resource Policy Committee (URPC) presented Senate Document 17-07, Resolution on Library Database Subscriptions, for Discussion. Explained the rationale for the document. The proposal is to gather detailed data – at the article level – on the use of journal articles at Purdue. This will allow us to consider, among other things, if we could save money by switching from subscription-based access to a fee-for-download arrangement. The resolution attempts to get the information that the publishers have not been willing to supply. Several methods are recommended in the document to obtain the data. It is a contentious and multi-faceted issue. Many faculty and administrative groups are working on this on the Purdue campus. The Senators were encouraged to pass suggestions for changes to the document to Professor Friedman.
12. Professor Deborah Nichols, Co-Chair of the Kaplan Entity Special Committee presented a brief update about the Committee. Following the presentation she answered questions from the Senate floor.
13. The Director of the Native American Education and Cultural Center (NAECC), Felica Ahasteen-Bryant, provided an update on the activities of the Center (see Appendix D). Professor Weldon thanked Director Ahasteen-Bryant. Professor Weldon noted that while visiting other countries, she found that they do a similar sort of introduction about the land. Professor Weldon would like to know how best to do this to start a presentation when visiting another country. Director Ahasteen-Bryant will send the information to Professor Weldon. Professor Alberto Rodriguez asked: "Do we do enough?" Director Ahasteen-Bryant suggested that we can do more, but it is hard for us to compete with the tuition breaks offered to in-state students. Other institutions offer more expansive tuition breaks and this would be nice to have, too. On the bright side, potential graduate students are now actively seeking us out for information.

14. The Director of Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS), Susan Prieto-Welch, presented an update on the resources provided for students by the Center (see Appendix E). She answered questions from the Senators about individual and group counseling, insurance coverage, referrals and coverage after they graduate. CAPS' services are available at no charge in most cases. However, there are charges for psychiatric appointments, both initial and follow-up. Some students cannot afford it and they work with Financial Aid to determine if a fee-waiver is possible. CAPS will bill if the students have other insurance. Psychological testing services may have charges associated with the testing battery that is performed. Students can have 12 individual appointments over a 12-month period. Group therapy is another option and there is no charge for this option. CAPS may refer to students to in-town services, when appropriate or necessary. Alumni/alumnae are not covered, but can work with CAPS care managers to find services outside the University. There are charges for services associated with alcohol and drug management. Although CAPS cannot provide enough services for all of the treatment modalities and models, referrals can be made to appropriate outside agencies. The administration has also formed a health wellness task force to help with these issues. Finally, Director Prieto-Welch noted that the additional staff hires seem to be working out well.
15. There was no New Business.
16. No Memorial Resolutions had been.
17. Having no additional business, the meeting adjourned at 4:25 p.m.

SUBJECT: Bylaws of the University Senate
DISPOSITION: University Senate for Discussion and Adoption
REFERENCE: University Senate Bylaws, 3.20 (b)
PROPOSAL: Expand eligibility for service as Senate Vice-Chair/Chair to include former University Senate members
RATIONALE: Allowing previous University Senators to run for the Vice Chairperson position will allow faculty members to serve as Vice Chairperson, and then Chair, at an appropriate time in their career, whether or not they are currently on the University Senate.

Current Bylaws text with recommended changes in red/strikethrough:

3.20 Chairperson and Vice Chairperson of the University Senate

- a) The Chairperson and the Vice Chairperson shall each serve for a term of one year beginning June 1. The Vice Chairperson shall succeed the Chairperson. Election of the Vice Chairperson shall be by secret ballot at the regular March meeting of the University Senate.
- b) At the regular February meeting of the University Senate the Nominating Committee shall nominate at least two members of the ~~faculty University Senate~~ for the office of Vice Chairperson. Additional nominations shall be accepted from the floor at any time before the election. Nominees must ~~be elected Senators~~ be faculty with eligibility to serve on the University Senate and have served a minimum of 2 years when nominated. Once elected, the Chairperson and Vice Chairperson shall serve as Senators-at-large. ~~And~~ If a Senator is elected Vice Chairperson, they shall relinquish their positions as representatives of an academic unit. The remainder of their terms, if any, shall be filled by a special election in their academic units. Brief résumés of the academic, administrative, and Senate service of each nominee shall be distributed at the time of nomination. †
- c) To be elected Vice Chairperson, a candidate must receive a majority of the votes cast. If no candidate receives a majority on the first ballot, a second vote shall be taken to choose between the two candidates receiving the largest number of votes on the first ballot.

 FROM: University Senate Steering Committee
 SUBJECT: Reapportionment of the University Senate
 REFERENCE: University Senate Document 90-5; University Code D 3.00; Bylaws of the University Senate, Items 2.00 and 2.01
 DISPOSITION: University Senate for Approval and Faculty Units

Section D 3.00 of the University Code and the Bylaws of the University Senate, provide that the University Senate shall be composed of one hundred two members. Ten of these are specified in the items 1 through 10 below. The other slots will be apportioned among the West Lafayette faculty units, according to the number of faculty members, with the provision that no faculty unit shall have fewer than two Senators. There are 2150 voting faculty members at the West Lafayette campus. When this number is divided by ninety-two the result is 23.37. Therefore, to qualify for two Senators, a faculty unit should have at least 47 voting faculty members. However, since no faculty unit can have fewer than two Senators, the Libraries unit qualifies for two Senators with 34 faculty members. The remaining units have a total of 2116 voting faculty members with ninety Senate seats remaining to be apportioned among them. The apportionment of Senators for each of these remaining units was obtained by dividing the number of voting faculty in the faculty unit by 23.37. The results are as follows: Agriculture, 13.05; Education, 2.87; Engineering, 17.97; Health & Human Sciences, 9.41; Liberal Arts, 12.07; Management, 4.58; Pharmacy, 3.38; Science, 14.08; Purdue Polytechnic Institute, 8.09; Veterinary Medicine, 5.05. In order to achieve the desired 90 Senators the faculty units were rounded to the nearest integer.

From: University Resources Policy Committee
Subject: Journal Database Subscription Usage
Disposition: University Senate for Discussion and Approval

A Resolution to Gather Information on Usage of Academic Journal Databases at Purdue University

Whereas, subscriptions for databases of academic journals is a large and growing annual cost for the library budget,

Whereas, the costs of these subscriptions and the practices associated with them by the publishers of the academic journals has become an issue of increasing concern and frustration for faculty, administrators and the Board of Trustees,

Whereas, faculty effort as reviewers and editors of academic journals is essential to their operation and represents a gratis contribution to the publishers,

Whereas, detailed information with the number and distribution of downloads by academic level and organizational unit, and subsetted by article, journal and publisher, would be valuable in knowing how to proceed with any alternative to the current system,

Be it resolved, the Purdue University Senate requests that administrators, faculty, and staff initiate a program for obtaining more information about the usage of the databases of academic journals by the members of the Purdue community. This program should include:

- a) Requesting detailed information from the publishers on database usage for the last completed database subscription period, including frequency data showing the number of times individual articles are downloaded for each journal in the database.

- b) If the method in paragraph a) fails to deliver sufficient actionable information, developing Purdue-based mechanisms for recording (in an anonymous way acceptable to the Purdue IRB) patterns of usage of journal databases. These could include a common portal for downloads and/or a mechanism for evaluating web traffic with the publisher sites.

- c) Preparing a comprehensive report on the gathered information, including proposals for alternative arrangements with an evaluation of their costs in dollars and any resulting limitations on faculty and student research and education.

Moving Toward a More Pro-Active US Update: The Kaplan-Purdue Deal

- Attended Annual BigTen Leadership Alliance Conference October 2017
 - Senate Leaders from 14 universities
 - Representing 48K+ faculty; 586K+ students
 - Not a political alliance but this can (should) change
 - Had to hijack agenda to discuss Kaplan deal and academic publishing monopolies

Moving Toward a More Pro-Active US Update: The Kaplan-Purdue Deal

- Wrote a statement of support against Kaplan entity to be sent soon to the HLC
 - So far: 4 Senate Leaders signed statement (Michigan State U, Indiana University - Bloomington, and the University of Nebraska)
 - UN Senate voted in favor of a resolution of support against Kaplan entity; waiting for Michigan State and others to send letters in early December
 - [INSERT APPLAUSE HERE]

Moving Toward a More Pro-Active US Update: Academic Publishing Monopolies

- More insidious than expected
- Met with:
 - Libraries Dean Mullins & Staff;
 - Keith Marshall, Executive Director, BigTen Alliance
 - Kimberley Armstrong, Director, BigTen Libraries Initiatives
 - And other BigTen Senate Leaders.
 - Sylvie Brouder, Chair, Purdue Library Committee
 - Progress:
 - BigTen Leaders interested in pursuing this issue
 - Possibly establish a Task Force or meeting with BigTen Library reps/faculty to develop recommendations.
 - Exec Dir. offered space and food at BigTen Headquarters in Chicago for a meeting

SLOAN INDIGENOUS GRADUATE PROGRAM

NATIVE AMERICAN EDUCATIONAL AND CULTURAL CENTER

Partnership with the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation to offer financial and academic support for Native American, Alaskan Natives, and Native Hawaiian students seeking a masters and/or doctoral degree in science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) fields.

Program Benefits

- Funding over the course of student's degree program
- Research experience
- Professional development opportunities
- Faculty mentors

Program Eligibility

- Native American, Alaskan Native or Native Hawaiian descent
- Pursue M.S. or Ph.D. in STEM related discipline
- Meet Purdue University's graduate admission criteria as defined by academic program of interest

College Student Mental Health: CAPS' Update

Susan L. Prieto-Welch, Ph.D., HSPP
Director, Counseling and Psychological Services

slprieto-welch@purdue.edu

11/20/2017

National data about college student mental health reveals.....

- Center for Collegiate Mental Health (CCMH) data, gathered from students seeking services at counseling centers around the country between 2010-2015, shows that:
 - between 2010-2015, clear trends in college student mental health reveal ever-increasing demand for service from counseling centers.¹
 - a larger subset of these students presents with significant risk factors (suicidal ideation and non-suicidal self-injurious behavior).
 - Thus, the increase in demand is now characterized by higher numbers of students with significant risk.
 - The CCMH Annual Report notes “this growth in demand includes a persistent increase in ‘threat-to-self’ characteristics such as non-suicidal self-injury and suicidal ideation (despite no change in the rates of prior mental health treatment).”¹
 - CCMH annual report notes “the average level of counseling center utilization grew by 30% while the average institutional enrollment grew by only 5%”.¹
 - All the while, staffing levels have generally stayed static (until the last 2-3 years).
 - For each 1% institutional increase in enrollment, data indicate the counseling center can expect a 5% increase in demand for service.

National data about college student mental health reveals (con'd).....

Ways in which CAPS' experience mirrors these trends:

- ❖ Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) at Purdue has seen the number of students seeking services, as measured by the number of initial assessment appointments scheduled, increase as follows:

- Fall, 2014= 1,091
- Fall, 2015= 1,381
- Fall, 2016= 1,875
- Fall, 2017= 1,808 (through 11/8/2017)

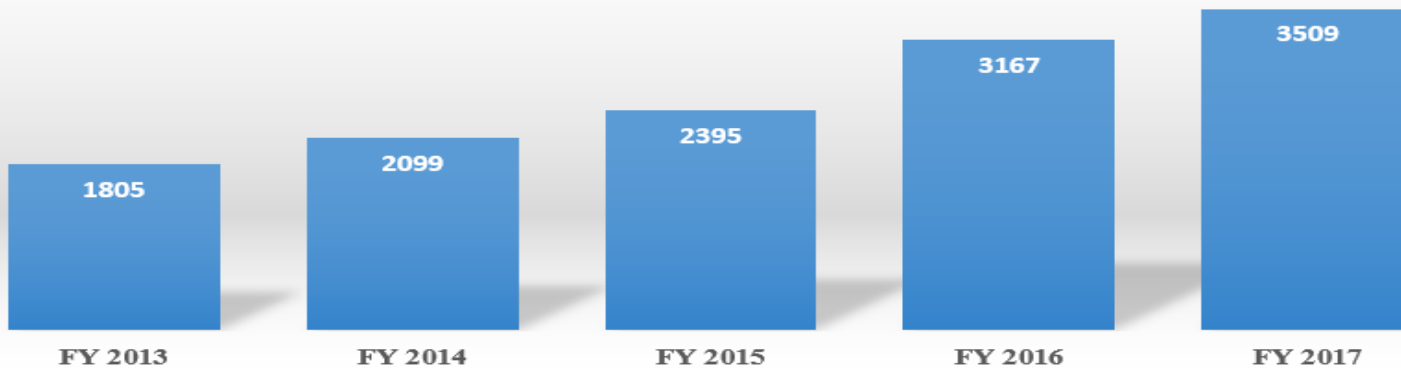

- ❖ CAPS has seen the trend of increased severity, as defined by increasing levels of risk to self, as well:

	Fall 2015	Fall 2016	Fall 2017 (through 11/8/2017)
Number of on-call contacts:	72	226	173
Number of hospitalizations	10	44	18

Note: In the vast majority of cases, the need for hospitalization is related to urgent or imminent risk of harm to self (suicidal ideation and intent).

Changes To Better Serve Students

In order to better address the trends of increased demand and severity of cases, CAPS has also undertaken a number of other changes to better serve students. These changes, detailed below, will continue to help optimize campus mental health resources to proactively address student needs:

- Streamlining of Quick Access/Initial Assessment Process. Beginning in February 2017, two clinicians have been dedicated solely to initial assessment. Additionally, a third therapist has been placed in an on-call capacity during business hours to address mental health emergencies. In addition, ProtoCall, an after-hours counseling service, was contracted to provide emergency support for urgent issues.
- Implementation of Clinical Scope of Services. Approximately one year ago, CAPS defined its scope of services to better determine which diagnoses could be treated internally and which issues would be better served with referrals to the community for higher intensity services. The results include: getting students who require more intensive, daily therapy (partial hospitalization or intensive outpatient services) referred earlier in the process and the development of additional group therapy options to serve lower urgency students.
- Implementation of a No Show Fee. Approved in fall 2016 and implemented beginning January 2017, the no show fee serves to discourage students from missing appointments, thus aiming to increase efficiency and better utilize therapist time.
- Expansion of Group Therapy Options. Group counseling is often an effective method of treating common mental health conditions experienced by college students while also providing additional benefits such as validation, normalization, and peer support.
