Governor’s Mansion
The Governor’s Residence Commission acquired the six and one half acre estate in 1973 for $242,000 to serve as the official Governor’s residence for then-Governor and Mrs. Otis R. Bowen. Longtime residence butler, Dexter Powell will give us a tour of the first floor of the English Tudor home. The first floor is open to the public and includes a foyer, library, formal living room, formal and informal dining rooms, sun porch, kitchen, butler’s pantry, residence staff offices and event space.
