THE ACADEMIC AFFAIRS CYCLE

Recruitment
Visits
Events

Before students apply

Before students accept

Before students arrive

Before students graduate

After students leave

Yield
Scholarships
Telephone calls
Mailings

Advising
Curriculum and policy
High-impact experiences
Audits
Recognitions & graduation
Expand the diversity of the student population
- Use scholarships to expand diversity
- Increase the diversity of academic affairs staff

Increase student success
- Ensure class schedules are designed for success
- Reduce credits required for graduation
- Maximize effectiveness of advising

Strengthen and streamline the curriculum
- Annual syllabus review
- Core curriculum
- Harmonizing degree requirements

Enhance the quality of teaching and learning
- Celebrate excellence in teaching and learning
Programs added

- 3+2 Combined degree: B.S. General Health Sciences and MBA (w/Krannert)
- B.S. Human Development and Family Services (HDFS)
- B.S. Developmental and Family Science (HDFS)
- B.S. Psychological Sciences (PSY)
- B.S. Brain and Behavioral Sciences (PSY)
- Honors program (Health Sciences)
- Pre-Athletic Training (HK)
- Pre-Applied Exercise and Health (HK)

Some of the programs retired or being phased out

- B.A. programs in HK, PSY, and SLHS
- Ph.D. in Marriage and Family Therapy (HDFS)
- B.S. Youth, Adult & Family Services (HDFS)
- B.S. Early Intervention (HDFS)
- B.S. Food Service & Lodging Supervision (HTM)
- Occupational Health minor (HSci)
- Radiological Health minor (HSci)
SINCERE THANKS TO:

Members of Educational Policy and Undergraduate Curriculum Committee

Members of Honors Task Force

Members of Interdisciplinary Task Force

Members of Teaching Awards Committee