CHILD AND YOUTH DEVELOPMENT IN CHINA

MAYMESTER, 2016

A SERVICE LEARNING GROUP PROJECT WILL FOCUS ON CROSS-CULTURAL LEARNING

China’s history stretches back more than 5,000 years. Today, China is rapidly modernizing and becoming a major world power. How have dramatic economic and social changes affected families, children, youth and education?

This 3 week study tour will focus on the lives of children and youth in modern China. Students will complete a 3-credit course while touring urban and rural areas in China, including Beijing, Nanjing, Shanghai, and Guilin. Students will visit universities, schools, preschools, and cultural sites, with opportunities to interact with children, youth, and university students and faculty. A group project will focus on cross-cultural understanding.

ALL MAJORS WELCOME!

Applies to your degree! Take HDFS 398 or PSY 336
May 12 to June 2, 2016
Cost includes credits, transportation, hotels, visa, tours: $4000
Apply online at Purdue Study Abroad, Program #SA10217
Deadline to apply is February 1st.

For more information, contact the course instructors:

- Dr. Jim Elicker, HDFS, elickerj@purdue.edu
- Dr. George Hollich, PSYC, ghollich@purdue.edu