Job title: Continuing Lecturer

Description:

The Department of Nutrition Science seeks applicants for a full-time position that will be 50% as a Continuing Lecturer who will be responsible for teaching selected nutrition-related courses, combined with 50% as the Managing Director of Clinical Training, Outreach and Research Centers; The Managing Director role will entail being responsible for development, management, and seeking funding for programs to optimize use of clinical and community space assigned to the Department of Nutrition Science at Lyles-Porter Hall and Stone Hall, including clinical research facilities, a demonstration kitchen, and consultation rooms with A/V recording capabilities. The desired applicant should have an entrepreneurial interest and seek (by direct contact or grant writing) to advance programs, and develop uses and grow financial resources for these spaces. Qualifications include a proven content background related to foods and/or nutrition with a minimum Master’s degree as well as teaching experience and interest in developing the business/entrepreneurial part of this position. Credentials as a Registered Dietitian are preferred but not required.

To apply, please send a cover letter and resume, as well as contact information of three references to: Kathleen Hill Gallant, PhD, RD, Department of Nutrition Science, 700 West State Street, Purdue University, West Lafayette, IN 47907-2059. References will not be contacted prior to obtaining applicant’s permission.

Review of applications will begin August 26, 2016 and will continue until the position is filled. A background check will be required for employment in this position. Purdue University is an EEO/AA employer. All individuals, including minorities, women, individuals with disabilities, and protected veterans are encouraged to apply.