The Graduate School is soliciting nominations for the tenth annual Graduate School Excellence in Teaching Award. This competitive award recognizes graduate students who exemplify excellence in the University's learning mission and this award is the highest presented by the University in recognition of graduate student teachers. The nominees must have already received in a prior year the award described in A, the CETA Teaching Award recipients. Students selected for this award must have demonstrated excellence in teaching and mentoring at the undergraduate and/or graduate level. In addition, recipients should have accomplishments in service/outreach and scholarly publications. Attached is a list of recipients of this award in recent years. Each award consists of a plaque, suitably inscribed, and $500. As honored guests of the Graduate School, up to four (4) recipients will be recognized at the 2013 Celebration of Teaching Excellence banquet to be held on April 23, 2013.

Eligibility

- Only prior academic year recipients of the CETA Teaching Award are eligible.
- Applicants must be registered as full-time graduate students during the semester in which applications are due.
- Previous recipients of the Graduate School Excellence in Teaching Award are not eligible.

Process

The application required by the graduate school is attached. Please submit a nomination using this application to Karen Studebaker (studebak@purdue.edu) by March 1, 2013. The nomination will be reviewed by the college and 2 unranked nominees will be submitted to the graduate school for consideration for the award. Application: Please limit the application to three (3) pages, 12 pt. Times Roman.
GRADUATE SCHOOL EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING AWARD

Name____________________________________ Degree Objective________________________

Department________________________________ College/School_______________________

Date of CETA Award________________________

Please address the following items, in the order listed below, in the application. While you are not limited to the items listed, any additional information is subject to the three (3) page limit.

Excellence in Teaching (including, but not limited to)

• Statement of Teaching Philosophy
• Courses Taught and Number of Students (if known)
• Course Responsibilities
• Instructional Materials Developed (for example, laboratory exercises, CDs, etc.)
• Educational/Teaching Workshop Participation
• Student Evaluations/Comments

Excellence in Student/Colleague Mentoring

Accomplishments in Discovery and/or Engagement (including, but not limited to)

• Research Area and Thesis Title
• Publications and Presentations
• Grants Submitted and/or Awarded
• Engagement Activities at the Professional, University, and Community Level

Awards and Honors
NOMINATION COVER SHEET

GRADUATE SCHOOL EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING AWARD

Nominee__________________________________________

Year____2013____________________________________

College/School____________________________________

Department_______________________________________

Recommended by:

_________________________________________________

Department Head

_________________________________________________

Dean, Academic College/School
Graduate Education Advancement (GEA) Deans

Shawn Donkin – College of Agriculture
James Lehman – College of Education
Audeen Fentiman – College of Engineering
Dorothy Teegarden – College of Health and Human Sciences
Andrew Buckser – College of Liberal Arts
Ananth Iyer – School of Management
Robert Geahlen – College of Pharmacy
Joseph Francisco – College of Science
James Mohler – College of Technology
Harm HogenEsch – School of Veterinary Medicine