Position Announcement

Associate Vice Provost for Teaching & Learning

The Office of the Provost at Purdue University invites applications for the Associate Vice Provost for Teaching & Learning. The Associate Vice Provost for Teaching and Learning is a two-year position with the potential for extension. The position provides leadership in undergraduate education and deals with matters of personnel, budget, academic planning, program evaluation and general academic policy development and implementation.

Required:

- Ph.D. degree
- Three years of Administrative experience at Purdue along with being a tenured full professor.
- Knowledge of higher education, Purdue's academic policies and procedures along with good people skills and good problem solving skills.
- Strong leadership, relationship building, project management, organizational, communication and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to work collaboratively with diverse groups of people.
- Ability to deal effectively with situations of competing or conflicting priorities.
- Ability to influence and build work relationships among a diverse workforce at all levels.
- Ability to foster a participative supervisory style while promoting teamwork to successfully guide the work of others.
- Learning orientation to changing technology impacting university processes.

Additional Information:

- Purdue will not sponsor an employment related visa for this position.
- A background check is required for employment in this position.
- FLSA: Exempt (Not Eligible For Overtime)
- Retirement Eligibility: Defined Contributions Immediately.
- Purdue University is an EEO/AA employer. All individuals, including minorities, women, individuals with disabilities, and veterans are encouraged to apply.

For full consideration and to apply, please click the following link:

http://purdue.taleo.net/careersection/wl/jobdetail.ftl?lang=en&job=1700919