Sara B. Primeau

As an Employee Assistance Counselor, at Purdue University, Mrs. Primeau is responsible for assessing the psychological and emotional state of employees, and assisting employees to obtain mental health treatment. She provides crisis intervention, suicide and homicide evaluations. She acts as an advocate for employees with community resources. EAP is a part of Work Life Programs. She acts as a partner to Employee Relations, to assist in the resolutions of work place conflicts. Mrs. Primeau assists supervisors to improve interpersonal management skills. She provides consultation on an as needed basis. She provides support to employees when there is a death on campus, or a tragedy in the work place.

Mrs. Primeau has a BS degree in Psychology from Purdue University, and a Master of Social Work degree from Indiana University. She is a Licensed Clinical Social worker, with over thirty years experience. She is a member of the National Association of Social Workers.