January 2005

La Primavera con el LCC

Latino Graduate Student Organization

The LGSO will be having their first call-out on Tuesday, January 25, 2005 @ 6pm, RAWLS

The LGSO will serve as part of the Latino Student Council through the LCC. The LGSO will serve as a resource to Latino graduate students as well as a mentoring resource to undergraduate Latino students. Please contact Ramiro Cabral for more information at 494-3270 or rcabral@mgmt.purdue.edu.

ATTN: Spring/Summer grads:

Latino Graduation Ceremony

The LCC will be holding it's first ever Latino Graduation Ceremony on Friday, May 13, 2005 at 6pm in the brand new Dick and Sandy Dauch Alumni Center. This is an opportunity for graduates to have a more intimate graduation experience. Graduates and families will have the opportunity to express their pride and gratitude with their peers and family in a smaller more intimate setting. Please contact the LCC to RSVP by April 30th to snaza@purdue.edu.

This semester the LCC will be launching a pilot program based on performance poetry. The program has surfaced by request and is a response to last semester's Hispanic Heritage Month's Latin Soul Seduction event. This program will be featured monthly and will start with an introduction by a scholar in the field or topic that will be covered at each Café. After the intro, the floor will open for anyone who would like to present their favorite poetry, song, literature, etc. The first Café is in honor of Black History Month (February). Professor Antonio Tillis will introduce this Café with a talk on Afro-Latino influences in poetry and literature. Poetry Cafés will also be held March and April. Please check our website for details.

Semana de la Raza (Feb. 28-March 5)

The LCC will be celebrating "Semana de la Raza" on the Purdue campus from February 28-March 5, 2005 for the first time ever. Literally translated, Semana de la Raza means "Week of the People." Semana will include a great many events. The theme of the week is: Semana de la Raza: Con Drama, Humor, Historia, y Fuerza.

The week will include a celebration of the arts which will take place on Friday night, March 4th. In collaboration with the Patty and Rusty Rueff Department of Visual and Performing Arts, the LCC would like to showcase the artistry of Latino visual and performing artists. On that night, the Theatre Division will be hosting performers in the Experimental Theatre and visual artists will be exhibiting their works in the Trap Room of Stewart Center. In addition to highlighting the work of Latino artists, the LCC will also have a political segment highlighting the movie "A Day Without a Mexican" followed by mediated discussion with Foreign Languages & Literatures professor Sonia Gonzalez, regarding the Latino experience. Please inform your students of our Semana de la Raza events and encourage interested parties to contact us if they'd like to participate.

If you would like to get involved, please contact the LCC at 494-2530

Please See Website for Calendar Details: www.purdue.edu/LCC

Positions at the Latino CC

The LCC is seeking a work-study student to work evenings, as well as, volunteers to act as Embajadores (Ambassadors) for the LCC. These positions are a great way to get involved with the activities at the LCC and other areas across campus. For more information contact Ramiro Cabral at 494-3270 or rcabral@mgmt.purdue.edu
