Position Announcement: Graduate Administrative Professional

Position:
The Graduate Administrative Professional (GAP) is a half-time (20 hours per week) administrative appointment, requiring evening and weekend responsibilities. This position operates within the Civic Engagement and Leadership Development area of the Office of the Dean of Students. It carries a stipend and tuition remission. The position begins August 1, 2015 and is a 12-month appointment (ending date is July 31, 2016).

Interested candidates should send a résumé, a statement of interest, and the names of three professional references to Vanessa S. Pacheco, vpacheco@purdue.edu. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Duties:
Perform generalist activities related to the management of the Civic Engagement and Leadership Development (CELD) office, its programs, and services. This GAP position works closely with the CELD student leadership, including the Community Action Day Site Supervisors, the Special Event Coordinators, and the Issue Advocates. Along with the Coordinator for Civic Engagement, this GAP position advises, manages, and coordinates the work and activities of the student leadership (eg. Boiler Blast, SLT).

This GAP position assists in co-coordinating and assessing (and must be available for) Voter Engagement, Community Action Days (up to four per year), Interfaith Service Initiatives, the Season of Sharing, Project Move Out, and Martin Luther King Day of Service. The position will also coordinate sanctioned service as well as CELD’s volunteer referral process.

This position will also interact with students on a one-on-one, group, and class room basis in advising and guiding their interests in community and civic involvement.

The student selected must demonstrate a commitment to advocacy, community service, civic involvement, and student engagement.

Required Qualifications:
- Earned Bachelor’s degree and admission into a Purdue University graduate program
- Experience with an interest in student organizations and co-curricular development
- Experience in and a commitment to the efficacy of student involvement in community and civic engagement
- Superior interpersonal and communication skills – verbal and written
- A passion for community service and civic engagement programming
- A passion for working with, advising, and teaching students
- Be team oriented, willing to take initiative, and learn on the job
- Computer proficiency—basic knowledge of SPSS and Qualtrics

Preferred Qualifications:
- Student organization experience as an undergraduate

PROGRAMS, INTERNSHIPS AND EMPLOYMENT

8. Thursday, July 30 – Sunday, August 2
ThinkChicago: Lollapalooza
Application Deadline: Monday, July 6

What is ThinkChicago: Lollapalooza?
From July 30 to August 2, 2015, Chicago Mayor Rahm Emanuel, along with the University of Illinois, Chicago Ideas Week, World Business Chicago, 1871, and Lollapalooza will invite 125 university students from across the country to take a behind-the-scenes tour of Chicago’s vibrant technology ecosystem and attend the 3-day Lollapalooza music festival.
How to Apply
Students are accepted into the program based on their interest in digital technology, computer science, innovation, entrepreneurship and a demonstrated commitment to excellence. Most students are in their junior or senior years of their undergraduate studies, but students from other years are also encouraged to apply. The program is free and there is no fee to apply.

- The deadline for student applications is Monday, July 6
- Applications can be completed at http://apply.thinkchicago.net

Student Benefits
- Learn about some of Chicago’s most innovative companies and meet with key industry leaders
- Attend talks and presentations featuring Chicago technologists and entrepreneurs
- Attend Lollapalooza 2015 music festival, plus a walk-through of the artist production areas
