Day of the Dead
Thurs, October 27
4:00 - 4:30 pm BCC  *  4:30 - 5:00 pm NAECC
5:00 - 5:30 pm AAARCC  *  5:30 - 7:00 pm LCC

Event features a progressive viewing of altars from the Greater Lafayette and Purdue communities at the campus multicultural centers. The event will begin at the BCC, move to the NAECC, then to the AAARCC and end at the LCC. At the LCC, there will be activities, food and altars from the LCC and LGBTQ Center. Día de los Muertos is a celebration of life. The holiday has its roots in the Aztec and indigenous cultures of Mexico and is celebrated there, throughout Latin America and in Latino communities across North America on Nov. 1-2. It coincides with Roman Catholic and other Christian denominations’ holidays of All Saints Day and All Souls Day. The NAECC will host altars as part of the LCC progressive displays from 4:30 to 500 pm. Sponsored by: Latino Cultural Center, in collaboration with Purdue cultural centers.  Click here for flyer.
NAECC Open House & NAHM Opening Reception
Wed, November 2 | 4:00 - 6:00 pm | NAECC

Join us for the “official opening” of the NAECC in our new home on University and Fifth Streets. We will also launch Native American Heritage Month events to be held in November. Remarks by special guest: Sally Tuttle (Choctaw), Chairwoman, Indiana Native American Indian Affairs Commission. Refreshments will be served.

Film Screening and Discussion: “Gifts from the Elders”
Thurs, November 3 | 6:00 - 7:30 pm | Gathering Place, Meredith Hall

This film focuses on a summer research project conducted by Anishinaabe youth from the Batchewana and Pic River First Nations who meet with local elders to chronicle their stories. Through the process, they learn of the environmental injustices and cultural dispossession they faced and their ultimate survival. Follow up discussion with Purdue Native
NAECC Craft Circle: Acrylic Paint with Daniel Bird
Mon, November 14 | 3:00 - 5:00 pm | NAECC

Take part in this interactive arts and crafts session. Graduate student Daniel Bird (Santo Domingo Pueblo) will lead the session focused on acrylic painting. Bring your creative energy for this stress reduction event. Reservations required, call 764-494-4540 or email naecc@purdue.edu

"Roc Your Mocs" Photo Exhibition
Tues, November 15 | 1:00 - 4:00 pm | NAECC

Part of a social movement across the U.S. to demonstrate Native American pride, Purdue’s “Roc Your Mocs” event will feature a photo exhibition featuring moccasins across tribal nations. As part of Native American Heritage Month, we encourage the Purdue community to wear moccasins all day and show your “Native pride.”

Photo compliments of Hailey Bryant
AAARCC-TOBER

Tues, October 24 | 1:00 pm | Ideal Asian Body Focus Group
Wed, October 25 | 2:00 pm | Henna Tattoos
Thurs, October 26 | 3:00 pm | Bhajan Music and Meditation
Friday, October 31 | 1:00 pm | Cultural cAAAndy

Click here for flyer.

Art Burton: "African American Presence on the Western Frontier"

Wed, October 26 | 7:00 pm | STEW 206
Critically acclaimed author Art T. Burton will give voice to the African American experience of the American West. His presentation will entertain and enlighten audience members as he examines the life and times of black men and women who settled on the Western frontier.

Boilers OUT Loud Performance

Tues, October 25 & Wed, October 26 | 7:00 - 8:00 pm | Mallett Theatre, PAO
Boilers OUT Loud! is a group of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer (LGBTQ) and Ally Purdue community members who author and perform monologues shedding light on the process of "coming out" and living their lives openly and authentically. Their powerful stories include funny, interesting, sad, exciting, serious, poignant, sometimes difficult but always real experiences. Each unique narrative explores the diverse perspectives found within this community while also demystifying sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression in an effort to break down stereotypes and misinformation, build safer spaces, and promote civil dialogue around often challenging ideas. If you would like to write a monologue or perform one, please contact LGBTQ@purdue.edu. Free and open to everyone!

Graduate Students of Color as Agents of Empowerment for Faculty of Color at PWIs

Speaker: Dr. Levon T. Esters, Purdue University
Wed, November 2 | 11:30 pm | YONG B-64
Students: The Office of Interdisciplinary Graduate Programs (OIGP) cordially invites you to an event in the Fall 2016 Interdisciplinary Social Justice Seminar Series. Please click here to RSVP by Monday, October 31 at 12:00 pm. Visit the Social Justice Seminar Series to see other upcoming events.

Actor-Network Theory, Symmetrical Anthropology and the "Ontological Turn"

Presented by Dr. Diego Soares da Silveira
Thurs, November 3 | 4:30 - 6:00 pm | BRNG 1243
Dr. Diego Soares da Silveira, PhD in Social Anthropology (University of Brasilia, 2011), is a Professor at the Institute of Social Sciences of the Federal University of Uberlândia and Research Associate at the Center for Research in Social Sciences (NUPECS-UFU), the Laboratory of Anthropology of Science and Technology (LACT/UNB) and the Center for Anthropology and Citizenship (NACI/UFRGS). His research interests include: Science and technology studies (STS); Indigenous Ethnology, Symmetrical Anthropology; Actor-Network Theory, Biodiversity and Traditional Knowledge; Brazilian Amazon. From 2007 to 2012, Diego worked as an adviser in human rights issues and traditional knowledge in Brazilian federal government institutions as the Genetic Heritage Management Council (CGEN) and the Special Secretariat for Human Rights of the Presidency of the Republic. Flyer attached

Taste of Brazil - Cooking Demonstration and Class

Thurs, November 3 | 6:00 - 8:00 pm | CoRec Wellness Suite
Sponsored by Latino Cultural Center

Mavis Staples: "Living on a High Note"

Fri, November 4 | 8:00 pm | Loeb Playhouse
*Pre-Show with Jame Dekle at 7:00 pm, Stew 202
Mavis Staples unmatched gospel and rhythm and blues masterpieces span 60 years and even served as a musical backdrop to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.’s campaign for civil rights. Co-sponsored by Purdue Convocations and the Black Cultural Center. Purchase tickets here
Livestream Info Session - The GREEN Program
Tues, October 25 | 3:00 pm
Supercharge your resume with The GREEN Program, an experiential education and career-focused abroad organization. The GREEN Program takes liked-minded students and young professionals from around the globe on short-term abroad programs to the epicenters of clean tech, sustainability, and innovative industries in Peru, Iceland, and Philadelphia. Each program is jam-packed with bucket-list adventure excursions, hands-on academia & academic credit, industry exposure, professional networking & leadership development, and cultural immersion for a career-enhancing study abroad experience unlike any other. For more information, click here. Watch livestream info session here.

Udall Undergraduate Scholarship
This scholarship of up to $7,000 is awarded to 60 undergraduate sophomores and juniors pursuing careers related to Tribal Public Policy or Native Health Care. Udall Scholars get to attend the Udall Scholar Orientation in August, meeting alumni and community leaders for exceptional networking opportunities, and gain lifetime membership to a growing and active alumni network. For more information and to sign up for free informational webinars, visit us at udall.gov. Deadline: online March 2, 2017.

Native American Congressional Internship
This ten-week summer internship in Washington, D.C., is for Native American and Alaska Native students who wish to learn more about the federal government and issues affecting Indian Country. The Foundation provides round-trip airfare, housing, per diem for food and incidentals, and a stipend at the close of the program. View the application and sign up for free webinars. You may also visit udall.gov to see what some of our alumni are up to now. Deadline: postmark January 31, 2017.

Mickey Leland Energy Fellowship
Application Deadline: December 30
For more than 20 years, the Mickey Leland Energy Fellowship (MLEF) Program has provided students with fellowship opportunities to gain hands-on research experience with the Department of Energy's (DOE) Office of Fossil Energy. The MLEF program was created in 1995 with the goal of improving opportunities for under-represented students in the science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) fields; however, all eligible candidates are encouraged to apply. For more information, click here.

Dr. Nancy Foster Scholarship
Application Deadline: December 9
The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's (NOAA) Dr. Nancy Foster Scholarship Program provides support for master's and doctoral studies in oceanography, marine biology, maritime archaeology and all other science, engineering, social science and resource management disciplines involving ocean and coastal areas particularly by women and members of minority groups. Dr. Nancy Foster Scholarships may provide, subject to appropriations, yearly support of up to $42,000 per student (a 12-month stipend of $30,000 in addition to an education allowance of up to $12,000), and up to $10,000 of support for a 4-6 week program collaboration at a NOAA facility. Masters students may be supported for up to two years, and doctoral students for up to four years. Depending on funding, approximately two to four scholarships are awarded each year. For more information, click here.

The Generation Google Scholarship
Application Deadline: December 1
This scholarship is awarded to African American, Hispanic, Native American or female undergraduate and graduate students attending college for at least one academic year and who are studying computer science or computer engineering specifically. For more information, click here.

Native American Scholarship Fund - Society for American Archaeology
Application Deadline: December 15
This scholarship is for students who are enrolled in Native American study programs or who possess Native American heritage and are pursuing education in archaeology. When applying, students must supply a personal statement, two letters of recommendation, a proposed budget explaining financial need, a brief description of the proposed study program and documentation of Native identity. For more information, click here.

---

COMMUNITY

Curator's Choice Talk: Mostly everything you've always wanted to know about the Native Nations of Indiana
Fri, November 4 | 12:00 pm | Eiteljorg Museum, Indianapolis

Curator's Choice talks occur at noon EST on the first Friday of each month. On November 4, please join Scott Shoemaker, the Thomas G. and Susan C. Hoback curator of Native American art, history and culture for a discussion about mostly everything you've always wanted to know about the Native Nations of Indiana. If you can't be here in person, be sure to watch Scott's 20-minute talk on Facebook Live. Follow us on Facebook by clicking here.

Eiteljorg Museum

---

If you would like to include events and programs in the NAECC Newsletter, click here.

---

Native American Educational and Cultural Center
903 Fifth Street, West Lafayette, IN 47906

765-494-4540
naecc@purdue.edu
www.purdue.edu/naecc