The Love Life of an Asian Guy - Ranier Maningding
Wed, November 16 | 6:30 pm | Krannert Auditorium
Ranier Maningding, author of the highly successful "Love Life of an Asian Guy" blog, will be coming to Purdue to talk about his personal journey to becoming a prominent "social justice warrior" representing Asian American interests in the social media sphere. He will also be discussing how Asian Americans relate to larger issues of racism and sexism across various identities in our contemporary society. Ranier will undoubtedly also have forecasts for Asian American activism in lieu of the Presidential election that will have concluded 8 days before his visit. This event is co-sponsored by the AAARCC, LGBTQ Center, Civic Engagement & Leadership Development, Fraternity, Sorority, & Cooperative Life, Student Activities & Organizations, Latino Cultural Center, Asian American Studies Program, Creative Writing Program, Brian Lamb School of Communication, Society of Asian Scientists & Engineers, Women's, Gender & Sexuality Studies Program, and the Purdue Social Justice Coalition.

A Place for All People
until December 16 | Art Gallery, Black Cultural Center
A Place for All People is a historic poster exhibit celebrating the opening of the newest Smithsonian museum, the National Museum of African American History and Culture. A Place for All People is available for the community to view at the Purdue Black Cultural Center. The African American story is one characterized by pain and glory, power and civility, enslavement and freedom. A Place for All People will evoke the power of oration and freedom stories, the brilliance of artistic achievement, and the soaring heights of cultural expression, philosophy, sports, and politics. In addition to profiling the long struggle to create the Museum, the building’s architectural design and its prominent location on the National Mall, the poster exhibit is a survey of the African American community’s powerful, deep and lasting contributions to the American story.

Resilience in the Face of Racial Trauma
Thurs, November 17 | 6:00 pm | Latino Cultural Center
How do we process? How do we remain resilient? Join CAPS staff and a panel of Purdue Faculty and Staff to discuss how to remain resilient in the face of racial trauma faced in our lives and on campus. Panelists will share how their racial and/or ethnic identities have impacted their careers, how they have navigated academia and predominantly white institutions as members of underrepresented communities. To be sure, the discussion may include other aspects of identities such as class, sexuality and gender. Visit the Facebook event for more information.

PROGRAMS, INTERNSHIPS, EMPLOYMENT

AGEP Scholar Program
Application Deadline: December 1
The Alliances for Graduate Education and the Professoriate (AGEP) award provides support to students who have made a commitment to support the principles of diversity in the STEM fields. The AGEP program is intended to significantly increase the number of domestic students receiving doctoral degrees in the physical sciences, social and behavioral sciences, biological sciences, technology, engineering, and mathematics, with special emphasis on those population groups underrepresented in these fields (e.g., African Americans, Hispanics, American Indians, Alaska Natives, Native Hawaiians or other Pacific Islanders). In addition, AGEP is particularly interested in increasing the number of minorities who will enter the professoriate in these disciplines. Specific objectives of the AGEP program are (1) to develop and implement innovative models for recruiting, mentoring, and retaining underrepresented domestic students in STEM doctoral programs, and (2) to develop effective strategies for identifying and supporting underrepresented domestic students who want to pursue academic careers. For more information, click here.

NOAA’S Dr. Nancy Foster Scholarship
Application Deadline: December 9
The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration’s (NOAA) Dr. Nancy Foster Scholarship Program provides support for master’s and doctoral studies in oceanography, marine biology, maritime archaeology and all other science, engineering, social science and resource management disciplines involving ocean and coastal areas particularly by women and members of minority groups. For more information, click here.

Society for American Archaeology Scholarship
Application Deadline: December 15
The Native American Scholarships Fund is an endowment established to foster a sense of shared purpose and positive interaction between archaeologists and Native Americans. For more information, click here.

Microsoft Minority Scholarship
Application Deadline: January 26, 2017
Microsoft awards tuition scholarships and conference scholarships each year to encourage students to pursue studies in Computer Science and related STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math) disciplines. Recipients for both scholarships will be awarded in recognition of their demonstrated passion for technology, academic excellence, and leadership while working to push the software industry forward. Microsoft

ASA Minority Fellowship Program
Application Deadline: January 31, 2016
Minority Fellowship Program applicants can be new or continuing graduate students. However, the MFP is primarily designed for minority students entering a doctoral program in sociology for the first time or for those who are in the early stages of their graduate programs. Apply here.

Celebrate Thanksgiving Weekend at the Eiteljorg
Fri, November 25 - Sat, November 26 | Eiteljorg Museum
Meet local artists Katrina Mitten (Miami) and Teresa Webb (Anishinaabe) and hear about Native American cultures through stories and songs, create art, and see the museum's annual holiday display, Jingle Rails: The Great Western Adventure. Schedule (both days): 10 am - 4 pm - Katrina Mitten (Miami); 1 pm - 3 pm - Teresa Webb (Anishinaabe) pictured above Eiteljorg Museum

Eiteljorg Museum Annual Toy Drive - Toys for Turtle Mountain
Sat, November 19 - Sun, December 11
Please consider donating unwrapped new toys to the Toys for Turtle Mountain Annual Toy Drive for children of all ages on the Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa Indian Reservation in Belcourt, ND. The Eiteljorg Museum has helped collect hundreds of toys over the past few years and with your help, this year can be the biggest yet! Monetary donations are also accepted to help pay for truck rental and fuel for the volunteers who transport the toys to the Chippewa reservation, 15 miles from the Canadian border. All donations are greatly appreciated and can be dropped off just inside the museum's main entrance. If you have any questions, please contact Alisa Nordholt-Dean at anordholt-dean@eiteljorg.com or 317-275-1319.
