December 16 - February 26 | Art Museum of Greater Lafayette, 102 S 10th Street, Lafayette
Reception: December 16, 6:30 - 8:30 pm
Working in paint, pastel, ceramics and mixed media, Willis Bing Davis is inspired by and draws upon his rich African heritage, creating contemporary works that reflect his ancestral past. Don’t miss your chance to see his collection, which has been exhibited at numerous venues including the Studio Museum of Harlem and the Indianapolis Museum of Art.

Dr. Martin Luther King Day of Service 2017 Registration Open
Martin Luther King Day of Service is made possible by the Purdue Black Cultural Center and Civic Engagement & Leadership Development and is a day of service and community action that takes place on January 16, 2017. This year’s theme is “Where Do We Go From Here?” and will expose participants to the types of leadership that have transformed movements from around the country and across time. Sign up here. Participants will be back to campus at or before 2:00 pm! Invite your friends! Breakfast (and a gift) will be provided.
