Asian America Today: On the streets and on the stage
Tuesday, March 22 | 3:00 - 4:00 pm | AAARCC, STEW 162

A small group discussion on the NYPD Peter Liang case and breaking down the Oscars. Given the numerous news articles, media coverage, and varied perspectives on these topics, we hope to have you all join us for this discussion. Free snacks and refreshments will be provided.

We are also happy to have facilitators joining us for this event:
- Juanita Crider, PhD Student, American Studies; Program Advisor, Black Cultural Center
- Michelle Lee, Masters Student, American Studies
- Annagul Yaryyeva, PhD Candidate, American Studies
Richard Siken Roundtable
Thursday, March 24  |  4:30 - 5:30 pm  |  SCHL B038

Richard Siken is a poet, painter, filmmaker, and an editor at Spork Press. In a profile of Siken, Nell Casey wrote, "he effectively juxtaposes holy wishes with mundane images - making them both seem beautiful by some strange lyrical alchemy." His poems unwind on the page effortlessly, barely pausing for breath; the speaker's voice wracked with sexual obsession. His book Crush won the 2004 Yale Series of Younger Poets prize, selected by Louise Glück. It was also a finalist for the National Book Critics Circle Award and won the Lambda Literary Award for "Gay Men's Poetry" in 2005[1] and the Thom Gunn Award from Publishing Triangle. His most recent book is War of the Foxes (Copper Canyon Press, 2015). Siken is a recipient of a Pushcart Prize, two Arizona Commission on the Arts grants, two Lannan Residency fellowships, and a fellowship from the National Endowment for the Arts. He is also a full time social worker, and he lives in Tucson, Arizona.  Sponsored by: LGBTQ Center

Poet Series: G. Yamazawa
Thursday, March 24  |  6:00 pm  |  Fowler Hall, STEW

G. Yamazawa is the youngest poet to become a National Poetry Slam Champion. He has also been an Individual World Poetry Slam finalist and toured over 40 American cities and 5 European countries. G has been featured at the Sundance Film Festival, Bonnaroo Music Festival, the Pentagon, and the White House Initiative on Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders. Sponsored by: AAARCC

Trans Day of Visibility
Thursday, March 31 | 8:00 am - 3:00 pm

TDOV is a day to show your support for the trans community. It aims to bring attention to the accomplishments of trans people around the globe while fighting cissexism and transphobia by spreading knowledge of the trans community. Unlike Transgender Day of Remembrance, this is not a day for mourning: this is a day to be empowered and get the recognition we deserve! #TDOV Rachel Crandall, the head of the Transgender Michigan, created TDoV in 2010 to celebrate the trans community in a positive light. Since 2013, Trans Student Educational Resources has taken over most social media, promotion, and outreach for TDOV. Sponsored by the LGBTQ Center

Springification & Boiler Blast
Saturday, April 9 | 8:00 am - 2:00 pm

Activities in Springification and Boiler Blast will assist residents who have asked for assistance. Organizers say the event is meaningful to people who love their homes but cannot quite do everything to tend and keep up things, and it also serves as a valuable source of goodwill. For those reasons, faculty and staff are encouraged not only to remind students of the opportunity but to sign up themselves.

Volunteers will report in three waves for a smoother flow of people – 8:00 am, 9:00 am and 10:00 am. After receiving breakfast, instructions, and tools and supplies, they will go out. The first wave should be able to return during the noon hour. The check-in and return point will be at the northeast end of Memorial Mall, nearest Wetherill Laboratory. Lunch will be provided for returning volunteers.

To sign up as an individual or group, go to www.boilerblast.org. Members of groups will need to sign up individually and list their group. To be sure of staying together, groups need to have enough drivers for their needs. For questions, contact Jon, the volunteer liaison, at springification@gmail.com or 765-494-1926.

Grounds Department Seeks Student Employees for Summer Employment

Purdue’s Grounds department is conducting a call out for student employees over the summer. Employees will be maintaining and installing campus landscapes outdoors Monday through Friday between 7:00 am. and 3:30 pm. Contact Grounds at (765) 494-3087 to schedule an interview or for additional information.
PROGRAMS, INTERNSHIPS AND EMPLOYMENT

2016 Myaamiaki Conference
Saturday, April 2 | 9:00 am – 4:00 pm | Miami University, Oxford, OH

The conference will present current research and other topics related to the Miami Tribe. This year’s theme is eeempaapikinamankwi kineepwaayoneminaani (We pick up the threads of our knowledge). Presentations will be given by Myaamia Center staff, Miami University graduates, and members of the Miami Tribe.

We ask that all participants individually register for this event. Visit the 2016 Myaamiaki Conference Information page for more information!

NEXTRANS Internship for Purdue Undergraduates

A spring research internship with the NEXTRANS Center is the perfect opportunity to become immersed in the field of transportation engineering. We are looking for several part-time undergraduate interns to participate in cutting-edge research related to an active Driving Simulator Laboratory project. Main tasks are related to developing the interactive driving simulator experiment, designing and analyzing driving behavior surveys, developing statistical models, and writing research reports. The research project will eventually include human subjects being monitored by an electroencephalogram (EEG) while using a driving simulator. The work setting is an off-campus professional research environment.

Applications will be reviewed by selection committee on a rolling basis. For more information, click here.

Awards from Library of Congress for Native Language Literacy

Application Deadline: March 31

The Library of Congress Center for the Book is pleased to announce that applications are now being accepted for the 2016 Library of Congress Literacy Awards. These awards are given to outstanding organizations working to promote literacy, both in the United States and worldwide. The awards seek to recognize organizations doing exemplary, innovative and replicable work over a sustained period of time and to encourage new groups, organizations and individuals to become involved. All groups that work to promote literacy are encouraged to apply. Applications from groups that have applied before are welcome.
Awards: Rubenstein Prize ($150,000), American Prize ($50,000), International Prize ($50,000). For more information, click here.

INAIAC Scholarship

April is Adult Learn to Swim Month: Free Swim Lessons
April 7, 14, 21, and 28 | 7:00 – 8:30 pm | YWCA, 605 N. 6th Street, Lafayette

According to the CDC, 37% of American adults cannot swim the length of a pool which puts them at risk of being one of the 10 people who drown every day in the United States. The YWCA and iSwim are partnering to change this by offering FREE swim lessons to beginning adult swimmers. Swimming not only has great health benefits, it saves lives!

Pre-register here or by calling 765-742-7042. Participants must register in advance and attend all sessions. Space is limited - sign up today! Registered participants will receive a complimentary swim cap and will have free use of the YWCA pool during the month of April to practice the skills learned during weekly lessons.
