NAECC Souper Wednesday

March 1 | 5:30 - 7:00 pm | NAECC

Join us for this monthly community gathering at the NAECC to get reacquainted with friends or to meet new people. Dinner will include hot soup and fresh bread!
Reception for Kayapó-Mebêngôkre Filmmakers, Artists and Tribal Leaders

Monday, March 6 | 4:00 - 5:30 pm | NAECC

Campus wide reception to welcome our special guests.

Film Screening and Discussion with Kayapó-Mebêngôkre Filmmakers, Artists, and Tribal Leaders

Monday, March 6 | 6:00 - 7:30 pm | Krannert Auditorium

This event will bring together a diverse group of Kayapó-Mebêngôkre filmmakers, artists, and tribal leaders from the central Brazilian Amazon. Filmmakers will show portions of recently made long-form documentaries or shorts on community life and life in the region. The showing will be followed by a discussion about the films and opportunity to further connect with the esteemed guests. Sponsored by: Department of Anthropology and NAECC
NAECC Craft Circle
Thursday, March 9 | 3:00 - 5:00 pm | NAECC

Take part in this interactive arts and craft session as we focus on painting. Learn about basic painting techniques from Adam Brewer, Purdue student artist from the Lumbee Nation.

PURDUE CAMPUS-WIDE ANNOUNCEMENTS AND EVENTS

AAARCC Faculty February Lunch Series
The lunch series that will offer students the opportunity to learn about the work of our amazing faculty from across campus who do research on Asian/American issues. Many faculty members will also discuss their own personal journeys in academia.
Feb 10 - 28 Flyer

STAR Ambassador Callout
Wed, March 1 or Thurs, March 2 | 6:30 pm | MSEE B012
Flyer and Description

Filipino American College Student Identities: Exploring Racial Formation on Campus
Mock Dissertation Defense: Xavier Hernandez
Wed, March 1 | 12:00 pm | AAARCC
Join Xavier as he prepares for his defense at the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign. Feedback is welcome from staff and faculty on both the theoretical and practical implications of his work.

Purdue Seeking Applications: Program Assistant for Orientation Programs
Student Success Programs is looking for a hardworking, knowledgeable, and energetic professional to join our team to assist in student leader mentoring, development and coordination of transfer student (on-campus and online) orientation and assist with other orientation programs. The salary is $38,000 with a generous benefits package.
Position Description
Celebrate Brazil with LCC
A celebration of Brazil culture through a series of events that highlight the history, food, music, politics, migration and carnival of this Latin American country.

A Bilingual Reading of La Familia Interrumpida/The Family interrupted
Wed, March 1 | 6:00 - 7:30 pm | LCC

Brazilian-American Literature and Brazilian Literature Written in the USA: A Historiography with Dr. Luciano Tosta
Thurs, March 2 | 6:00 pm | Krannert Auditorium

Taste of Brazil II: Cooking Demonstration
Thurs, March 9 | 6:00 - 8:00 pm | CREC Demo Kitchen

Women in Leadership Institute
Sat, March 4, Stewart Center
The women in Leadership Institute is a daylong opportunity for students and community members to expand their leadership capacity and consciousness of the West Lafayette community. Participants will have the opportunity to hear two fabulous keynote speakers, Virgie Tovar and Franchesca Ramsey, attend intensive workshops, breakout sessions, and a networking reception featuring student organizations and companies that are currently hiring. Registration information, $10 for students, $25 for community members.

"Mouride Muslims in South Africa" Art Exhibit by Iris Dawn Parker
March 6 - 10 | BCC
Iris Parker is a native of North Carolina residing in Johannesburg, South Africa. Her work as an artist, teacher and mentor explores issues of identity formation, gender, family and community. This is an exhibition of images documenting the daily life and practice of the Mouride Muslim Community in BEZ Valley, Johannesburg, South Africa.

Mentoring@Purdue Invited Lecture Series: Dr. Erika T. Camacho, Assoc. Professor, Arizona State University
Insights to Success Before, During, and After Graduate School Through My Story
For Graduate Students: Tues, March 7 | 5:30 - 6:30 pm | WSLR B008

Intentional and Strategic Mentoring
For Faculty & Staff: Wed, March 8 | 10:30 - 11:30 am | PFEN 241
Read more about Dr. Camacho here. Flyer

Latino Cultural Center Film Festival and Opening Gala
Tues, March 7 | 6:30 pm | Krannert Auditorium
Undertow (Contra corriente)
Join the LCC for a five-part Latin American and Latino Film Series. The series will begin on March 7 with an opening reception 5:30 - 6:30 pm.

Southeast Asian American Education 35 Years After Initial Refugee Resettlement
Thurs, March 9 | 1:30 pm | Beering Hall 1255
Dr. Wayne Wright is a Purdue professor in the Department of Curriculum and Instruction and the Barbara I. Cook Chair of Literacy and Language. He is the Editor of the Journal of Southeast Asian American Education and Advancement. Dr. Wright's lecture will center on Southeast Asian students in the K-12 system as well as in high education. Sponsors: AAARCC and Brian Lam School of Communication

Promoting a Platform of Inclusion: Achieve Your Dreams by Embracing Your Identity
Nina Davuluri: International Women's Week Keynote Speaker
Thurs, March 9 | 6:30 pm | Loeb Playhouse, STEW
Join us for an evening with Nina Davuluri, Miss America 2014, as she shares her journey of embracing her identity and culture to achieve her dreams of promoting diversity and inclusion and serving as a role model to young women. One of over 14,000 young women vying for the coveted title of Miss America 2014 (and its $50,000 scholarship award), Nina Davuluri gained international acclaim when, representing the state of New York, she became the first contestant of Indian descent to win the crown. Facebook event
SCHOLARSHIPS & CONFERENCES

Summer Internships
Application Deadline: March 20
The Department of Energy (DOE) and Office of Environmental Management (EM) are offering summer internships to current undergraduate and graduate students attending a Minority Serving Institution. Eligible candidates must be enrolled in a STEM discipline.

COMMUNITY

Dogs: Faithful and True
March 4 - August 6  |  Eiteljorg Museum, Indianapolis
Explores the enduring presence and contributions of dogs as companions, workers and heroes in Native American and Western cultures. In addition to art, photographs, artifacts and interactive experiences, there will be dog-related programming at various points during the exhibit. You'll be able to adopt a dog from the Indy Humane’s Pet Adoption Wagon, participate in fun art workshops, hear a talk from the Purdue College of Veterinary Medicine on the history of dogs in art and dog breeds, learn about related community groups and much, much more. Dogs: Faithful and True promises to be a heart-warming and insightful look at our canine friends. Go to the Eiteljorg Museum website for more information on programs related to the exhibit.

Appraisal Day with Cowan’s Auctions
Tues, March 14  |  1:00 - 7:00 pm  |  Eiteljorg Museum, Indianapolis
Bring your treasures to the museum and join experts from Cincinnati-based Cowan's Auctions Inc., to find out what your heirlooms are really worth, For more information go to the Eiteljorg Museum website

If you would like to include events and programs in the NAECC Newsletter, click here.

Native American Educational and Cultural Center
903 Fifth Street, West Lafayette, IN 47906

765-494-4540
naecc@purdue.edu
www.purdue.edu/naecc