TRIBAL IMMERSION PROGRAM

NATIVE AMERICAN EDUCATIONAL AND CULTURAL CENTER

Spring Break Immersion Trip
March 12th through 17th, 2017
Eastern Band Cherokee Indian Reservation

Participate in this five-day immersion trip to visit the Eastern Band Cherokee Indian (EBCI) reservation in Cherokee, North Carolina

- Learn about historical and contemporary issues impacting tribal communities
- Meet with Cherokee elders, tribal leaders, and artists
- Experience everyday life on the EBCI reservation

Topics that will be addressed during this trip will include tribal sovereignty, language revitalization, tribal governmental structure, sustainability and natural resource management, and social services issues. Trip cost will be covered for Purdue students by the NAECC.

Deadline to Sign Up: Friday, February 17, 2017

Funding for this program is provided by the Diversity Transformational Award, Office of the Provost and the NAECC.

For more information, contact: Felica Ahasteen-Bryant, email felica@purdue.edu or Kanoe Perreira, email: kperreir@purdue.edu.