TRIBAL IMMERSION PROGRAM

NATIVE AMERICAN EDUCATIONAL AND CULTURAL CENTER
NATIVE AMERICAN AND INDIGENOUS STUDIES

Spring Break Immersion Trip 2018
Sat, March 10th through Fri, March 16th, 2018
Haudenosaunee Nations in New York

Five-day immersion trip to visit the Eastern Woodland tribal nations in New York. Includes the Haudenosaunee (Iroquois) nations: Onondaga, Oneida, Seneca, and Tuscarora Nations.

- Learn about historical and contemporary issues impacting tribal nations with focus on tribal sovereignty, language revitalization, tribal government structure, sustainability and natural resource management and more
- Meet with tribal leaders, elders, and artists
- Trip includes a visit to Kinzua Dam in Pennsylvania, Seneca-Iroquois National Museum, and Niagara Falls State Park

Student Cost: $500 per person
Expenses will cover lodging, transportation, and museum fees. Students will cover meals. Access the on-line application at the NAECC website (www.purdue.edu/naecc).

Application Deadline: Friday, February 9, 2018

Partial funding for this program is provided by the CLA Innovate Award, Diversity Transformational Award, Office of the Provost, Native American Indigenous Studies, School of Interdisciplinary Studies, and the NAECC

For more information, contact: Felica Ahasteen-Bryant, email: felica@purdue.edu or Professor Dawn Marsh, History, email: dmarsh@purdue.edu

903 Fifth Street | West Lafayette, IN 47906 | (765) 494-4540 | fax (765) 494-9777 | http://www.purdue.edu/naecc