The Fulbright U.S. Student Program awards 1,900 fully funded grants to more than 140 COUNTRIES for U.S. citizens to research, study or teach during a post-baccalaureate year abroad. The program promotes cultural exchange and drives mutual understanding. Come find out if FULBRIGHT is right for you!

OFF-CAMPUS OPTIONS AVAILABLE:
If you are off-campus, contact us at least 24 hours before the session at niso@purdue.edu to register for WebEx participation.

ENGLISH TEACHING ASSISTANT GRANTS
Excited by the prospect of teaching English abroad? English Teaching Assistants also spend half of their time in cultural engagement! Session for applicants aiming to be abroad in 2019-20. Juniors, seniors, and graduate students attend.

RESEARCH AND STUDY GRANTS
JUNIORS, SENIORS AND GRAD STUDENTS
If you are considering applying to fund independent research or graduate study in a foreign country during 2019-20, this session is for you. Learn the details of the application process and how Fulbright can best meet your needs. Juniors, seniors, recent alumni, and graduate students attend.

RESEARCH AND STUDY GRANTS - GRAD STUDENTS
Current Ph.D. and Master’s students – Figuring out how to research the international piece of your project? Join us to discuss applying for grants to fund independent research abroad during 2019-20. This grant can also fit into a secondary degree from an institution abroad. If you are unable to attend this session, please join us for any Research and Study Grants session.

FULBRIGHT U.S. STUDENT PROGRAM - OVERVIEW
Basic information for those considering a Fulbright down the line, especially freshmen and sophomores. More specific information for applicants desiring a 2019-20 grant given in Tuesday and Wednesday sessions.