Fulbright U.S. Student Program – Overview

Basic information for those considering a Fulbright down the line, especially freshmen and sophomores. More specific information for applicants desiring a 2017-18 grant given in Tuesday and Wednesday sessions.

Fulbright U.S. Student Program – STEM Students

STEM undergraduates and grad students – wondering how a Fulbright year can fit into your study and professional goals? Whether between graduation and your next step or looking to research abroad for your thesis/dissertation, STEM applicants for a 2017-18 grant begin positioning their qualifications, research, and “cultural exchange” aspirations now.

Research and Study Grants - Guidance for Undergraduate students

Juniors and seniors, if you are considering applying to fund independent research abroad or study at an academic institution in a foreign country during 2017-18, this session is for you! Learn the details of the application process and how Fulbright can best meet your needs.

Research and Study Grants - Guidance for Graduate students

Current Ph.D. and Master’s students – Figuring out how to research the international piece of your project? Join us to discuss applying for grants to fund independent research abroad during 2017-18. This grant can also fit into a secondary degree from an institution abroad.