Police seek suspect in sorority house break-in

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. - Purdue University police are looking for a suspect following a Monday (March 10) morning break-in at the Delta Zeta sorority house.

Officers arrived at the unoccupied sorority house, 825 Hilltop Drive, after the building alarm went off at 1:51 a.m. Police discovered that someone had entered through the main dining room entrance on the building's north side.

Police said the suspect apparently left after hearing the alarm. It was not immediately known if anything was taken from house.

A tracking dog from the Lafayette Police Department was used to try to locate a suspect, but was unsuccessful. West Lafayette police also assisted with the search.

Police relocked the Delta Zeta house and checked other nearby fraternity and sorority houses for signs of attempted entry.

Anyone with information about the incident should call Purdue police at (765) 494-8221 or the anonymous tip line at (765) 496-3784.
