Police seek man in connection with public indecency complaint

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. — Purdue University police are looking for a man who allegedly exposed himself on Wednesday (Nov. 1) on Hilltop Drive.

Officers were called around 8:10 p.m. to the Delta Delta Delta sorority house, 1200 Tower Drive. A female student there told police she had just left Hilltop Apartments and was walking on the sidewalk near Building 28. She said a man driving a large white vehicle, possibly a truck or sports utility vehicle, pulled up beside her and asked for directions. He then exposed himself, said Purdue police Capt. John Cox.

Cox said the man was white, most likely in his late 30s to early 40s, had brown hair and a full beard. According to police reports, the man also wore a dark-colored jacket with stripes on the sleeves.

Cox said the man could be charged with public indecency, a Class A misdemeanor, punishable by up to one year in prison and a maximum fine of $5,000.

Anyone with information about the incident should call the Purdue Police Department at (765) 494-8221 or the anonymous crime tip line at (765) 496-3784.
