THE 2015 CANCER CULTURE AND COMMUNITY COLLOQUIUM

OCTOBER 3, 9-11 A.M.
MatchBOX Coworking Studio, 17 South 6th St., Lafayette
Empathy Card workshop with Melissa Fraterrigo, author and freelance writer, and Chloe Brizendine, graphic designer

OCTOBER 27–NOVEMBER 14 (GALLERY OPEN TUESDAY THROUGH SATURDAY, 12-7 P.M.)
Fountain Gallery, 330 Main St., Lafayette
The Lafayette Empathy Card Project gallery exhibit

NOVEMBER 12, 11:30 A.M.-1 P.M.
YWCA, 605 N. 6th St., Lafayette
Panel Discussion: “Talking Straight and Curvy: Navigating the Doctor-Patient Relationship in Cancer Care”

NOVEMBER 12, 7:30 P.M.
Fowler Hall, Purdue University
“Two Doctors, Two Generations: Medical Ethics Then and Now”
Keynote presentation by Dr. Barron H. Lerner, professor of medicine and population health at the New York University School of Medicine
With introduction by Emily McDowell, creator of Empathy Cards for Serious Illness

Sponsors and partners: West Lafayette Public Library, Purdue Libraries, Oncological Sciences Center, College of Liberal Arts, Department of English, Office of Public Affairs, Purdue Center for Cancer Research, Office of the Provost, Discovery Lecture Series, Patti and Rusty Rueff School of Visual and Performing Arts, Purdue Galleries, YWCA and MatchBOX

Oncological Sciences Center, Purdue University
oncologicalsciences@purdue.edu | 765-494-4674 | www.purdue.edu/research/ccc