

Information Classification for PUSH

Information Owner: Director
Data Steward: Dan Whiteley and Dee Schlatter
Date: October 2005

Purdue University Student Health Center (PUSH):

PUSH is the campus health service. The staff of highly trained, experienced professionals is committed to offering high-quality healthcare to Purdue students and their spouses. PUSH specializes in the treatment of illness and injury, preventive medical care, and health education.

Information Name	Description	Classifications
		Public	Sensitive	Restricted
Credit Card Information	Credit Card information transmitted for payment of services at check-out.			X
CARS Data Transmissions	Summarized Billing information transmitted to the mainframe for use within CARS for collection.			X
Immunization Records Information	State required immunization data file transmitted to the mainframe for use by the Office of the Registrar.			X
PyraMED Medical & Account Information	Medical and account information maintained within the PyraMED system including demographic information collected from SITP extract file and Bursar for students and following; Patient Accounts, Confidential Medical Information, Insurance Claim Information and Financial Reports.			X
Televox	Laboratory test result data stored in voice data format. Replaces the older Patient Test Results System. Will be available via the web.			X
WinScribe Dictation Software	Clinical Dictation for transcribing in voice data format.			X