SUBJECT: Change to Academic Regulations and Procedures on Scholastic Deficiency
DISPOSITION: University Senate for Discussion

RATIONALE: Academic Warning status is based on semester GPA and informs students that academic performance needs immediate improvement. Academic Probation status is a stronger warning that poor academic performance may jeopardize future enrollment. Academic Probation status and Academic Drop status is based on cumulative GPA only. By establishing higher cumulative GPA for Academic Warning, Academic Probation and Academic Drop, students will strive to meet these levels and increase student success and graduation rate.

B. Dropping of Students for Scholastic Deficiency

A student on scholastic probation shall be dropped from the University if, at the close of any regular semester, his/her graduation index is less than that required of a student as shown in Table B or he/she receives failing (F) grades in six credit hours or more for the semester.

This rule shall not apply for the semester in which the student completes all requirements for his/her degree. However, records of a degree recipient who does not meet the minimum index requirement of Table B shall be reviewed by the appropriate campus readmissions committee before he/she is allowed to pursue another undergraduate degree.

Any grade change due to a reporting error will result in a recalculation of the index and determination of drop status.

Probation for two consecutive terms semesters shall be dropped from the University.

This rule shall not apply for the semester in which the student completes all requirements for his/her degree. However, records of a degree recipient who does not meet the minimum GPA index requirement of Table B 2.0 shall be reviewed by the appropriate campus readmissions committee before he/she is allowed to pursue another undergraduate degree.

Any grade change due to a reporting error will result in a recalculation of the index GPA and determination of drop status.

This status is recorded on the student's academic transcript.
