TO: The University Senate

FROM: Ad hoc Committee to Evaluate Efficient and Effective Operation of the Purdue University Senate

SUBJECT: Efficient and Effective Operation of Purdue Senate

DISPOSITION: University Senate for Discussion

REFERENCES: Senate Bylaws

Current	Proposed
The senate committees shall be constituted of senators, advisors to the senate and students provided for in other sections of these bylaws. Elections will be held annually at the last two regular meetings of the senate to fill elective vacancies on each senate committee for the coming year for terms beginning June 1, and at such other times as vacancies may need to be filled. The report of the Nominating Committee, including names proposed, will be circulated with the agenda for the meeting at which elections are to take place. At least one nominee shall be identified for each elective vacancy on each senate committee, except that two shall be named for each vacancy on the Steering and Nominating committees. Members of the Steering and Nominating Committees shall be elected at the March meeting and members of other committees shall be elected at the April meeting. In each instance, nominations may be made from the floor. When the number of nominees exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, election shall be by written ballot, and a plurality is sufficient to elect. Advisors to senate committees shall be chosen in accordance with the provisions in section 2.00c.	The senate committees shall be constituted of senators, advisors to the senate and students provided for in other sections of these bylaws. Elections will be held annually at the last two regular meetings of the senate to fill elective vacancies on each senate committee for the coming year for terms beginning June 1, and at such other times as vacancies may need to be filled. Current	Proposed
The normal term of an elected senator shall be three years, beginning on the June 1 following his/her election. In the event a Senator does not complete his or her term, a replacement Senator shall be elected for the remainder of the original term. After reapportionment of the senate in December, the individual faculties (see Section 2.00 b5) will complete the election of senators who are to assume office on the coming June 1, and report the results to the secretary of the senate by February 1. The individual faculties will set up their own methods for nomination and election of senators. They may provide alternates to serve, if an elected senator is unable to serve temporarily, or to replace a senator recalled on request of the senate.	The normal term of an elected senator shall be three years, beginning on the June 1 following his/her election.
