You have what it takes to succeed at Purdue. The proof? You got in. And here’s more good news — you have resources here. People who want to help you do well. Let’s start with the “Big Three.”

1. YOUR ACADEMIC ADVISOR
   You already have someone to help you select your courses and work out a program of study — your academic advisor. He or she will provide the information you need about registration, electives, schedule revisions, changing majors and graduation requirements. Please ask your advisor any question you have; that’s what they’re there for!

2. OFFICE OF THE REGISTRAR
   Located in Hovde Hall, this office handles academic scheduling, transcript requests, changes to student personal information, residency questions and enrollment verifications (e.g., for health or car insurance companies). Office staff members also record encumbrances and grades, manage academic records and handle graduation/commencement. In addition, staff members can answer questions about the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), the federal law that states that access rights to university educational records belong to the student.

3. MYPURDUE
   MyPurdue is a Web portal that allows you to register for classes, get transcripts and class schedules, check and update your personal information, print grades, check financial aid information, pay Purdue bills and more. Access the portal anytime at https://mypurdue.purdue.edu.
Academic Success Center — offers free walk-in help and all-campus workshops to teach you how to succeed in your classes.

Disability Resource Center — determines eligibility for academic adjustments and implements services for Purdue students with disabilities; examples include testing accommodations, sign language interpreters, note-taking assistance and document conversion of print materials.

Information Technology at Purdue (ITaP) — offers a variety of computing services, including Purdue computer-system user accounts, more than 50 computing labs, wireless access and Blackboard Vista (a system for viewing and managing online course resources).

International Students and Scholars — provides services such as international undergraduate admissions; international credit evaluation; immigration advising including employment authorization and travel endorsements for returning to Purdue after departing the U.S.; orientation programs; advising/counseling; cultural and social programs; and cross-cultural training.

Libraries — provides access to databases, e-journals, the catalog and research help through www.lib.purdue.edu, plus in-person assistance and resources at 13 libraries on campus. For locations, see www.lib.purdue.edu/libraries/maps.

Span Plan Adult Student Services Program — provides numerous resources designed for undergraduates who have taken a non-traditional path to higher education.

Student Access, Transition and Success Programs — offer a number of initiatives to welcome new students and help them succeed, including Boiler Gold Rush; the Common Reading Program; Learning Communities; Purdue Promise; Summer Transition, Advising and Registration; Supplemental Instruction; and Twenty-first Century Scholars.

Study Abroad — helps students from all majors participate in more than 200 study abroad programs in over 45 countries, with lengths ranging from a week to a year. Program costs vary, but many are comparable to studying at Purdue (excluding travel).

Writing Lab — offers free one-on-one consultations to any student working on any writing project, in any stage of the writing process.

How do I find these places?
The building locations, phone numbers and Web addresses for all of these student services are listed in the Quick Resource Guide at the back of this booklet.

Best-hidden secret #1
Genevieve Viduya, Senior
The best-hidden secret at Purdue is the wide variety of majors. It wasn't until last year that I realized Purdue has a pretty competitive apparel design program, offered in the College of Health and Human Sciences.
DO PROFESSORS TAKE ATTENDANCE?

Individual professors have different policies, but it’s a good idea to attend class even if the professor does not take roll call. If you miss class due to serious illness, accident or other unique situations beyond your control, contact the Office of the Dean of Students, which sends out a list of student absences to professors. However, because this list does not explain the nature of the absence, it is recommended that you also contact your professor(s) directly.

HOW MUCH TIME SHOULD I SPEND STUDYING?

A general guideline is about two hours of study time for every hour you spend in class, but you’ll find that you may have to spend more time for some classes and less for others.

WHERE CAN I STUDY ON CAMPUS IF I DON’T WANT TO STUDY IN MY ROOM?

All Purdue libraries have space for studying, including a 24-hour study lounge at the Hicks Undergraduate Library. Additional spaces include the lounge areas of the Purdue Memorial Union and Stewart Center, empty classrooms, and study lounges within some academic departments.

WHICH LIBRARY CAN I USE?

All of the libraries at Purdue are open to students. You’ll most likely use the Hicks Undergraduate Library for much of your work during your first two years, and you’ll probably also use one or more of the 12 subject-oriented libraries while pursuing your degree.

WHAT IF I NEED HELP IN A CLASS?

First, talk with your instructor. Professors and teaching assistants (TAs) have posted office hours during which students can come and talk with them. Some instructors hold periodic help sessions. Also ask if the class includes supplemental instruction — an out-of-class session held by a current student who helps you understand the course material. You also can get a list of tutors from the Office of the Dean of Students or from a resident assistant in University Residences. In addition, be sure to check out the Chemistry Resource Center (Wetherill Hall, Room 117C) and the places listed on pp.12-13.

WHAT IF I WANT TO CHANGE MY MAJOR?

If you are unsure about your major, career counseling is available in the Center for Career Opportunities. If you know what major you would like, you will want to obtain an official copy of your transcript and talk with a counselor in the college or school into which you would like to transfer. Some areas set grade and course requirements for students who transfer. Staff in the college or school into which you want to transfer will review your record and decide whether you meet the requirements. Your academic advisor will help you with the Change of Degree Objective (CODO) procedure. CODO forms are available in the Office of the Registrar.

WILL MY PARENTS GET MY GRADES?

By federal law, access to grades and other university records belongs to the student. So, the choice of whether or not to share your grades with your parents is yours.

WILL I GET THE SAME GRADES I DID IN HIGH SCHOOL?

Some classes may be easier than those you had in high school, but most will be more difficult; they will be faster-paced and will require more studying, reading and problem solving. Many students experience a slight drop in grades while adjusting to a new, more independent learning style.

QUESTIONS? WE’VE GOT ANSWERS.

Top 3 Tips
Lauren Long, Sophomore

1. Facebook will become your new best friend ... and your worst enemy. Learn to balance time spent on the Internet.

2. If you’re not already, become a list-maker.

3. Get involved in something you love. It will make college that much more memorable.
GET OUT AND MEET PEOPLE
Don’t worry about making friends. Purdue is a big campus with a small-school feel. Make the effort, and you’ll have no problem finding people you click with.

JOIN A CLUB
Hard to believe, but Purdue has more than 900 recognized student organizations, and students repeatedly say that getting involved is one of the best ways to make friends. With that in mind, visit www.getinvolved.purdue.edu to browse through your options, and be sure to attend the activities fair at the start of your first semester.

PLAY (OR WATCH) SPORTS
Cheering on Purdue’s NCAA Division I teams is a perennial favorite, but you’ll also have numerous opportunities to play sports if you’re so inclined. To explore all your options, visit www.purduesports.com and www.purdue.edu/recsports.

ENJOY THE ARTS
Whether you’re interested in Broadway musicals, dance, visual art or other media, you’ll have many avenues to explore at Purdue. Purdue Convocations, for instance, presents professional touring acts from around the world. Recent performances include Lady Gaga, Kronos Quartet and “Spamalot.”

GO TO THE UNION
With its restaurants, lounges, bowling alley and other amenities, the Purdue Memorial Union is considered the center of community on campus. Put it on your list of places to explore your first week.

BEST HIDDEN SECRET #2
Kelsey Grabarek, Junior
Many people don’t know about the tunnel walkways at Purdue. They can be handy when you’re braving the sometimes-crazy Indiana weather.

PURDUE FIGHT SONG.
[JUST THE CHORUS]

Memorize This!

HAIL, HAIL TO OLD PURDUE!
ALL HAIL TO OUR OLD GOLD AND BLACK!
HAIL, HAIL TO OLD PURDUE!
OUR FRIENDSHIP MAY SHE NEVER LACK,
EVER GRATEFUL EVER TRUE,
THUS WE RAISE OUR SONG ANEW,
(BOILER UP!)
OF THE DAYS WE’VE SPENT WITH YOU,
ALL HAIL OUR OWN PURDUE.
LIVE ANYWHERE YOU WANT
You don’t have to live in any particular type of housing at Purdue, so go ahead. Choose what best suits you. Here are your on-campus choices:

University Residences — Offers clean and well-maintained buildings, great food in the dining courts and a dedicated support staff to help students. Additional benefits include recreational equipment, lounges for recreation and study, and numerous meeting spaces.

Fraternities and Sororities — Provides housing for most students in the Greek community, though a few of the organizations do not have houses. Altogether, about 16 percent of Purdue’s undergraduates belong to the 48 fraternities and 33 sororities on campus. Membership is by invitation.

Cooperative Housing — Offers a way for students to save money on housing by handling chores like cooking and cleaning. Purdue has 12 cooperative houses — five for men and seven for women — each of which typically houses 35 to 60 residents.

EXPLORE OTHER CULTURES
Purdue is home to people from many different backgrounds. Make time to experience cultures and lifestyles that are different from your own. Here are a few places on campus to check out:

Diversity Resource Office — Works to encourage, develop, administer and assess programs and activities that foster a climate celebrating the diversity of all members of the Purdue community.

Black Cultural Center — Provides purposeful, holistic, scholarly and co-curricular programming designed to strengthen understanding of African-American heritage.

Latino Cultural Center — Serves as a place to gather, learn, share and support Latino cultures. The center’s guiding philosophy is ¡Todos Son Bienvenidos!, which means “All are Welcome!”

Native American Educational and Cultural Center — Seeks to provide Native American students with personal and professional enrichment opportunities in a culturally appropriate fashion, as well as to serve as a “second home” for current and prospective students.

Women's Resource Office — Helps lead Purdue to achieve equity; create a supportive campus climate; and provide a rich variety of opportunities for learning, professional growth and leadership for all female students, staff members and faculty at the University.

Religious Activities — As a state university, Purdue is nonsectarian. However, the Lafayette-West Lafayette area provides places of worship for many faiths, and there are many religious organizations on campus.

Queer Resource Center — Is a student-run resource office that serves the whole campus, with a focus on Purdue’s gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender population.
Purdue University Student Health Center (PUSH)
Serves as the campus health service. Office visits to the medical clinic are free to all full-time students and on a fee-for-service basis to part-time students and student spouses. Visit www.purdue.edu/push to see the center’s full range of services; call 765-494-1700 for general information or 765-494-1724 to reach Urgent Care.

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS)
Offers confidential counseling sessions to actively enrolled students. Many services are offered at no charge. Any student can access services by calling 765-494-6995 for an initial consultation with a senior staff clinician, who will conduct an initial triage assessment, determine the recommended course of treatment and address services available to meet the student’s needs. Visit www.purdue.edu/caps to learn more.

The Purdue University Pharmacy
Fills prescriptions for students at a nominal charge. Licensed pharmacists, graduate student instructors and pharmacy students staff this resource.

M.D. Steer Speech-Language and Audiology Clinics
Provides diagnosis, treatment and counseling for speech-language and hearing disorders.

Recreational Sports Center
Is in the midst of a $98 million renovation and expansion, scheduled for completion by fall 2012. In the interim, students can work out at the Boilermaker Aquatic Center, the East/West Gyms, the new Turf Recreation Exercise Center and at transitional facilities in several residence halls. Visit www.purdue.edu/recsports for more information.
POLICY ON ALCOHOL

Purdue students are subject to Indiana law, which prohibits consumption or possession of alcoholic beverages by anyone under the age of 21. To review the University’s “Alcohol and Other Drug (AOD) Policy Guide,” visit www.purdue.edu/aod.

TAKE THIS COURSE

Purdue is excited to introduce to campus AlcoholEdu, an online alcohol education course that all first-year students are required to complete. The course takes about two hours and offers guidance on how to address the drinking behavior that may occur in the student’s environment. Participants will join faculty, staff and fellow classmates in creating an environment safe for all. Each student will need to take the first course before the first day of class; information about the second course will arrive in late September.

CONSEQUENCES OF ALCOHOL VIOLATIONS

If you choose to drink, it’s important to realize the impact that bad choices could have on your future goals:

* If you’re 18 or over and are charged with violating an alcohol law, you will always have an arrest record.
* Minor alcohol violations can impact certification or licensure in your field, and even future employment opportunities at the company of your dreams.
* If you plan to attend graduate or professional school after you earn your Purdue degree, know this: admissions offices often call the University to see if there are any conduct issues on students’ permanent records.

SIGNS OF ALCOHOL POISONING

Read through the information below so that you can get help for your friends if or when they need it:

WHAT TO LOOK FOR

* Person is unconscious or semiconscious and cannot be awakened.
* Cold, moist, pale or bluish skin.
* Slow, shallow breathing.
* Vomiting while “sleeping” or passed out, and not waking up after vomiting.

WHAT TO DO

* Get help. Call 911 and inform your RA.
* Do not leave the person alone.
* Turn the victim on his/her side to prevent choking in case of vomiting.
* Always follow “better safe than sorry.” Don’t let worries about being in trouble or paying the bill stop you from saving a life.

WHERE DO I GO IF I AM FEELING DOWN, STRESSED OR HAVE PERSONAL CONCERNS?

Call 765-494-6995 to speak to a counselor with Counseling and Psychological Services. You will experience a confidential, supportive atmosphere that will help you in self-understanding and resolving a variety of personal issues.

SMOKE-FREE PURDUE

Purdue policy prohibits smoking in campus buildings and residence halls, and limits outdoor smoking to designated smoking areas. If you are a smoker and want to quit, visit www.purdue.edu/smokefree and click on “Smoking Cessation Resources.”
Making sure that students are safe is a primary focus at Purdue. The University makes every effort to provide a safe environment through the areas and services listed on the following pages.

DIAL 911 IF YOU HAVE AN EMERGENCY OF ANY KIND.
In addition to providing fire protection to the Purdue community, the Purdue Fire Department has two Advanced Life Support ambulances that offer the highest level of pre-hospital care. All department staff members are trained to the hazardous materials technician level and are trained and certified in aircraft rescue and firefighting.

Purdue University Police Department

765-494-8221
www.purdue.edu/police

By state law, Purdue police officers act with the same authority as state, county and city police officers and are equipped to cope with emergencies and other problems on campus. Be aware of emergency telephone call boxes, yellow with a blue light on top, prominently located across campus. Purdue police headquarters answers within seconds when you open the call box door and push the button. In addition to performing normal law enforcement duties, patrolling the campus and enforcing traffic and parking regulations, the department conducts personal safety presentations and discussion groups.

Safe-Walk Program

765-494-SAFE (7233)
www.purdue.edu/police/about/people/studentpatrol.htm

Administered by the Purdue Police Department, this program provides a Purdue Student Security Patrol officer to walk students to their residences within the Safe-Walk zone. The service operates 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, year-round.

Emergency Preparedness and Planning Office

765-494-0446
www.purdue.edu/emergency_preparedness

Established in December 2006, this office oversees the emergency preparedness and planning activities on Purdue’s West Lafayette campus. Visit the office’s website for full details.

---

Top 3 Tips

Carol Shelby, Senior Director of Environmental Health and Public Safety

1. Be prepared for emergencies. See www.purdue.edu/emergency_preparedness.
2. If you’re alone at night and need an escort to walk with you, call 494-SAFE for the Purdue Student Security Patrol.
3. If you choose to drink alcohol, drink in moderation, so your judgment is not impaired.
Paying for Purdue

Bursar's Office
Located in Hovde Hall, the Bursar’s Office processes financial aid refunds and handles invoicing and payments for tuition, fees and housing. Bursar contact information is listed in the Quick Resource Guide at the back of this booklet.

Refunds
Registered students — Those who find it necessary to cancel their registration prior to the first day of classes will receive a 100% refund of all tuition and fees.

International students — Those considering withdrawal from the University should contact the Office of International Students and Scholars (ISS) about non-immigrant status, because withdrawing will affect their legal stay in the United States.

Non-Title IV Aid — Students who withdraw during the first six weeks of a semester, with the recommendation of the registrar, will receive a partial refund of the general service fee and tuition.

Title IV Aid — Once classes begin, refunds are prorated based on the date of official withdrawal from class(es). Refunds are based on a diminishing scale through 60 percent of the semester. Refunds are calculated on all fees and tuition.

Financial Aid
Financial planning is a vital part of getting a college education, and Purdue’s Division of Financial Aid (DFA) is available to help you throughout your time at the University. About three-fourths of all Purdue students receive some form of financial assistance, including scholarships, grants, loans and job opportunities. Most aid is based on financial need.

Student Employment
The Student Employment Services area in DFA maintains a centralized listing of current on-campus and off-campus part-time job listings available to students. Find out more at www.purdue.edu/dfa/studentjobs.

Remember to File Your FAFSA
If you want to apply for aid from federal sources, your state and Purdue, you must submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) annually by March 1.
DEAN OF STUDENTS

You can seek out personal, academic and career counseling — from professionally trained counselors — through the Office of the Dean of Students (ODOS). The office also oversees areas such as Students Activities and Organizations and the Diversity Resource Office. And it handles the issues covered below.

SCHOLASTIC PROBATION
A first-semester student is placed on probation if his or her semester or graduation index is less than 1.5. Gradually increasing index levels are required of students as they progress toward graduation. A student ceases to be on probation at the end of the first subsequent semester in which he or she achieves semester and graduation indexes at least equal to those required for that student’s academic classification.

In general, a first-year student on scholastic probation will be dropped from the University if his or her graduation index is less than 1.4 or if he or she receives failing grades in six or more credit hours for the semester. To return to the University after a minimum of one semester away, a student who has been dropped must apply for readmission to the Committee on Scholastic Delinquencies and Readmissions through the Office of the Dean of Students. A fee is assessed for processing the readmission application. If the student is permitted to register again, he or she will do so on scholastic probation.

SCHOLASTIC RECOGNITION
At the end of each semester, an undergraduate student will receive Semester Honors if he or she 1) has at least six credit hours in the semester index with a semester index of at least 3.5; and 2) has at least a 2.0 graduation index. The student will be eligible for the Dean’s List if he or she 1) has at least six credit hours in the semester index with a semester index of at least 3.0; and 2) has at least 12 credit hours in the graduation index with a graduation index of at least 3.5.

These academic regulations apply only during a regular semester. Students cannot earn scholastic honors, be placed on scholastic probation or be dropped from the University at the end of a summer session.

STUDENT CONDUCT
Students are expected to abide by local, state and federal laws as well as University regulations governing student conduct. Cheating; disruption of a University activity; theft; property damage; physical abuse; harassment; unauthorized use of University facilities; furnishing false information; or use, possession, or distribution of narcotics or dangerous drugs are some of the violations that could result in a student’s expulsion, suspension or disciplinary probation. If misconduct also violates the Indiana criminal code, prosecution, in addition to University disciplinary action, may follow. For more information, visit www.purdue.edu/univregs and click on “Student Conduct.”
