

If You're
Thinking About...

Academic

- dropping below 15 credits
- dropping a class or classes
- withdrawing completely
- retaking a class
- receiving an “F” or incomplete
- changing your major
- studying abroad
- participating in a co-op program
- interning away from campus during a fall/spring semester
- taking summer classes
- enrolling in a 3+ program
- transferring

Non-Academic

- changing your meal plan
- living off campus (this includes Greek and Cooperative housing)
- substantial life changes*
- moving to another state (or if your parent wants to)
- taking out an emergency loan
- applying for private scholarships
- becoming an RA

Talk to your Purdue Promise Coach about how it would affect your scholarship eligibility.

 Examples include: pregnancy, marriage, claiming dependents, declaring independent status, loss of guardian/parent(s), or another family crisis.*

As a Reminder...

Purdue Promise offers a number of program resources to help you succeed. These resources include:

- coaching from professional staff
- GS 197 and GS 405
- professional development modules
- tutoring and academic resource referral
- academic recovery program (MAPS)
- free printing
- study hours and quiet study space

For more information visit our website www.purdue.edu/purduepromise

