Featured Student Organization

The Vietnamese Student Association at Purdue (VSAP)

VSAP is an inclusive, social, and cultural organization that promotes the Vietnamese culture, foods, and traditions throughout Purdue's campus and the nation. We hold many events open to all students, you don't have to be Vietnamese to join, and we do events to promote the culture such as Pho Night, Karaoke Night, and our Tet Winter Formal! Within our organization, we also have a family programming system called ACE which stands for Anh, Chi, Em where Ems are paired with either an Anh or Chi and attend various events, bond, and win prizes! We welcome everyone of all races and ethnicities who are interested in learning about the Vietnamese culture!

A discussion on the film will follow the screening.

"The Poverty of Privacy Rights"

Thursday, October 3, 2019

VISITING SCHOLARS SERIES

“THE POVERTY OF PRIVACY RIGHTS”

KHIARA M. BRIDGES
AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR / ANTHROPOLOGIST / LEGAL SCHOLAR

The U.S. Constitution is supposed to bestow rights equally. Yet the poor are subject to invasions of privacy that suggest that they live in a world where the government has few, if any, limits on its power.

In this talk, author and University of California, Berkeley law professor Khiara M. Bridges will discuss poor mothers' experiences with the state – both when they receive public assistance and when they do not.

Join her, as we examine cultural narratives that equate poverty with immorality and consider how they may be responsible for denying poor mothers the privacy rights the U.S. constitution is supposed to guarantee. Q & A to follow Bridges' talk.

THURS. OCT. 3
4:30-6:00 PM
HONORS HALL

PRESENTED BY:

PURDUE | Honors College | PURDUE | Diversity Resource Office
A COMMITMENT WITHIN THE UNIVERSITY OF DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

Time: 4:30- 6:00 PMLocation: Honors Hall (HCRN)

Consider attending this public talk featuring award-winning author, anthropologist, and legal scholar Dr. Khiara M. Bridges who will share on "The Poverty of Privacy Rights". Her talk (free and open to the public) will be of interest to students and faculty across disciplines who want to learn more about the intersections of U.S. health care policy with privacy rights and inequality. Please feel welcome to circulate the attached flyer widely within your networks.
