

Graduate School English Proficiency Waiver Form

Heads of graduate programs which are fully delivered in distance, executive, or weekend formats may request, to the dean of the Graduate School, that their applicants receive exemptions to the English proficiency examination requirement. Graduate program exemptions to the English proficiency requirement must be renewed by a new request to the dean of the Graduate School every three years. It is suggested that renewal requests coincide with graduate program assessments.

Requested graduate major and/or degree objectives:

As you are requesting an exception to evaluate English proficiency through our standard acceptable tests (TOEFL, IELTS, or Duolingo English test), how will English proficiency be assessed?

How will these assessments be completed?

If approved, this will be a 3-year agreement. How will students' success in the program be evaluated at the end of the 3-year timeframe?
