

Deidre Bush

Deidre Bush joined ADVANCE Purdue Center for Faculty Success in November 2011 as Program Manager and Assistant Director. She previously worked in extension and research project management in the Departments of Food Science and Foods & Nutrition here at Purdue University. In Food Science Extension De helped food entrepreneurs and co-developed “An Introduction to Starting a Specialty Food Business in Indiana” workshop. Her early career experience was in the food industry including Quaker Oats Co. where she developed a patented farina product. She holds an M.S. and B.S. in Food Science. De also has an Indiana teaching license (Secondary Sciences) and has been a substitute teacher and standardized test item writer and scorer.