Current Positions:

Professor of Communication, Purdue University
Faculty Associate, Center for Aging and the Life Course, Purdue University

Education:

B.A., Communication, Purdue University, 1976
M.A., Speech Communication, Pennsylvania State University, 1978
Ph.D., Communication Arts, University of Wisconsin-Madison, 1983

Dissertation:

"Development and Initial Tests of an Action Assembly Theory"

Employment:

Purdue University, professor, 1993 - present
Purdue University, associate professor, 1988 - 1993
Purdue University, assistant professor, 1985 - 1988
University of Southern California, assistant professor, 1983 - 1985
University of Wisconsin-Madison, graduate teaching assistant, 1978 - 1983
Pennsylvania State University, graduate teaching assistant, 1976 - 1978

Visiting Appointments:

University of Kansas, Department of Communication Studies, Distinguished Visiting Scholar, 1992
University of Iowa, Department of Communication Studies, 1985

Honors and Awards:

Selected Honors and Awards:

Distinguished Alumnus, Communication Arts and Sciences, Pennsylvania State University, 2016.

Outstanding Scholarly Edited Book Award, Applied Communication Division, National Communication Association, 2005. (The Handbook of Communication and Social Interaction Skills, 2003)

Ann and Charles Redding Fellow, Purdue University, Department of Communication, 2003-2005.

Selected Honors and Awards (continued)

Identified as one of the top 100 most productive researchers in the field of Communication during the period 1915-2001 (Communication Quarterly, 2004, 52, 323-333)

Gerald R. Miller Book Award, Interpersonal Communication Division, National Communication Association, 2004. (The Handbook of Communication and Social Interaction Skills, 2003)

Distinguished Book Award, Communication and Social Cognition Division, National Communication Association, 2003. (Message Production: Advances in Communication Theory, 1997)

Gerald R. Miller Book Award, Interpersonal Communication Division, National Communication Association, 2002. (Message Production: Advances in Communication Theory, 1997)

Cecil and Ida Green Honors Chair, Texas Christian University, Department of Speech Communication, 2002

Identified as one of the top 100 most productive communication researchers and also as being among the top one percent of most prolific researchers in the field of Communication during the period 1915-1995 (Communication Monographs, 1999, 66, 178-197)

Speech Communication Association, Charles H. Woolbert Research Award, 1994 (presented annually in recognition of "an article or chapter which has stood the test of time and has become the stimulus for new conceptualizations of speech communication phenomena")

Recognized as being among the most frequently cited authors in Communication (Human Communication Research, 1996, 22, pp. 563-574)

Identified as one of the top three percent of most active communication researchers in a study of publication records through 1990 conducted by members of the faculty at the University of Miami, Florida, 1993

Other Honors and Awards:

National Communication Association, Top Three Paper, Communication and Social Cognition Division, 2009

Purdue Research Foundation, research grant: "A Word in Due Season: Creative Facility in Older Adults," $29,627, 2004

Center on Aging and the Life Course, Purdue University, research grant: "Creative Facility in Older Adults," $751, 2004

International Communication Association, Top Three Paper, Information Systems Division, 2001

Other Honors and Awards (continued):

International Communication Association, Top Three Paper, Instructional and Developmental Division, 1998

Speech Communication Association, invited speaker, "Taking the Helm" Series, SCA Annual meeting, San Diego, 1996

International Communication Association, Top Four Paper, Information Systems Division, 1996

International Communication Association, "Best of Information Systems," Top Two Theoretical/Programmatic Research Papers, Information Systems Division, 1995

International Communication Association, Top Four Paper, Information Systems Division, 1994

Purdue University, International Travel Grant, 1994

Speech Communication Association, Top Four Paper, Commission on Communication and Aging, 1993

International Communication Association, Top Four Paper, Information Systems Division, 1993

Speech Communication Association, Top Ranked Paper, Speech and Language Sciences Division, 1988

Purdue University, Summer Research Appointment, 1988

Plenary Speaker, Ninth Annual Conference on Discourse Analysis, Temple University, 1988

Purdue University, International Travel Grant, 1987

International Communication Association, Top Three Paper, Information Systems Division, 1987

Purdue University, Summer Research Appointment, 1987

International Communication Association, Top Three Paper, Information Systems Division, 1986

Purdue University, Summer Faculty XL Grant, 1986

International Communication Association, Top Three Paper, Interpersonal Communication Division, 1985

Speech Communication Association, nominated for "Dissertation of the Year" award, 1984

International Communication Association, Student Paper Award, Interpersonal Communication Division, 1982

International Communication Association, Top Three Paper, Interpersonal Communication Division, 1981

Attended Purdue University on a four-year National Merit Scholarship
