Item #1 – Meeting Call to Order and Adoption of Agenda

- MaPSAC Chair Stacey Baisden called the meeting to order at 1:31 p.m.
- Asked for additions/corrections to the agenda. Hearing none, agenda was approved.

Item #2 – Guest

President Mitch Daniels

- Expressed appreciation for the invitation to attend
- Also expressed appreciation for the work done all year by the staff members of CSSAC and MaPSAC and staff campus-wide
- Input from staff is always important but especially so over the coming months regarding work can be effectively and flexibly done to perform better
- Invitation (obligation) of all staff to help the university make the smartest possible decisions moving forward
- Currently operating under 50% occupancy with 2/3 of parking spaces vacant
- New opportunities for different schedules other than 8 – 5 depending on the position and who it services (students, staff)
- Tuition freeze and the impact on space needs; no impact as building continues and will continue for classroom space as necessary
- Administrative and classroom space available due to more delivery online (pre- and post-COVID) with fewer lectures delivered to large same-room groups
- Comparison to other universities
  - 13% of staff in higher education lost jobs; essentially zero at Purdue
  - Furloughs and pay cuts for staff and faculty at many other universities
- Expects to resume pay increases of 2 – 3%
- Positive recruitment compared to other schools
- January term will create no changes for staff and will allow students to continue moving forward on with studies
