❖ Academic Standing: What is it and how is it calculated?

- Assigned at the end of Fall and Spring semesters.
- Determined by Grade Point average (GPA)
  - 2 types – Semester and Cumulative

Semester GPA	Cumulative GPA
Weighted average of grades after a single semester	Weighted average of all grades from all semester

❖ What are the differences between: Academic Good Standing, Academic Notice, Continued Notice, and Academic Separation?

Good Standing ( $>2.0$ )	• Both a student's semester and cumulative GPA are above a 2.0
Academic Notice ( $<2.0$ )	• One or both GPAs fall below a 2.0 and the student was previously in good standing
Continued Notice ( $<2.0$ )	• One GPA is above a 2.0 and the other is below a 2.0
Academic Separation ( $<2.0$ for +2 semesters)	• Occurs when a student's semester AND cumulative GPA are below a 2.0 after being placed on notice.

❖ How do you return to Academic Good Standing if you are on Academic Notice?

- Return to good standing if/when a students' semester and cumulative GPAs are above a 2.0.

Semester GPA	Cumulative GPA	Academic Standing
$\geq 2.0$	$\geq 2.0$	Good Standing
$\geq 2.0$	$< 2.0$	Continued Notice
$< 2.0$	$\geq 2.0$	Continued Notice
$< 2.0$	$< 2.0$	Academic Separation

❖ Academic Notice does not mean...

- You don't belong at Purdue,
- You are not intelligent,
- You cannot be successful after this.

❖ Instead, Academic Notice DOES mean...

- At least one of your GPAs is lower than a 2.0.
- The university cares about your success and is concerned about your academic performance.
- You may want to try some new strategies and seek out additional support on campus.
- YOU CAN STILL BE SUCCESSFUL!

❖ Not sure where to begin?

- Know that you are not in this alone!
- Meet with your Academic Advisor and utilize campus resources
  - Please note that there are no university wide requirements for students on academic notice; however, check with your advisor for any requirements specific to your college or program.
